JULY, 1969

To Our Readers:

The record business in 1968 passed one of its great milestones in surpassing the $1 billion sales mark. For one reason or other, the record business has looked to this figure as a mark of achievement that lifted its stature from a modest corner of the total leisure-time field to one of a true giant. Its own sales volume and the untold millions the record business tends to generate in additional leisure-time sales volume have not gone unnoticed in the business community. When outside companies make acquisitions in this area, it is frequently stated for public knowledge or at least understood that record and music units are regarded as possessing great growth-potential. There have been some undisputed instances where purchases of leading leisure-time entities have been made with a very direct eye on their music field affiliations.

Yes, the music field is big business, a fact now recognized by Big Business itself. Yet this bigness does not hide the fact that day in and day out the business relies on the whim of public acceptance of pre-recorded sounds on vinyl or tape. No matter how large its sales volume, the elusive element of public taste will still determine the well-being of this business.

As the business presently finds itself pursued and courted by heady figures and stock deals, etc., Cash Box uses its 27th Anniversary remarks to remind the business that it must, in the final analysis, put all its creative and administrative ideas to work on offering the public the right product, exposed in the right manner. This is the way it can fulfill its potential and establish new potentials to strive for.

NUMBERS AREN'T EVERYTHING

Numbers, numbers, numbers. That's all this industry talks about. Bullets and stars. Listings, sales and returns. But numbers aren't everything.

TALENT IS.

Numbers don't add up to talent. Songs are only written by people. Talented people like these writers who are under contract to Pocketfull of Tunes: Tony Romeo (Indian Lake, Poor Baby, Path of Love, Blessed Is The Rain, Welcome Me Love) • Irwin Levine, Toni Wine (Black Pearl, You Came, You Saw, You Conquered) • Irwin Levine (This Diamond Ring, Things Of The Past, I Must Be Seeing Things) • Tony Wine (Groovey Kinda Love) • Herb Bernstein (Breakout) • Wes Farrell (Hang On Sloppy, Come A Little Bit Closer, Let's Lock The Door, Come On Down To My Boat).

GROWTH IS.

Numbers can't predict the impact of giant talents to come. Suppa-Heat. John Lincoln Wright. The Soultown Symphony and musical concepts yet unnumbered.

SENSITIVITY IS.

And numbers can't calculate the sensitivity and craftmanship that goes into the production of a hit record. Records like: The Worst That Could Happen, Blessed Is The Rain, Welcome Me Home The Brooklyn Bridge (Buddah) • Indian Lake, Poor Baby, Path Of Love The Cowsills (MGM) • Come On Down To My Boat, Put Your Mind At Ease, Pony With The Golden Mane Every Mother's Son (MGM) • Lord Of The Manor The Everly Brothers (Warner Brothers) • Star Crossed Lovers, Neil Sedaka (Atlantic) • And total concept album product like The Eyes Of The Beacon Street Union (MGM) • The Elephant's Memory (Buddah) • Brooklyn Bridge (Buddah) • The Best Of The Cowsills and Captain Sad & His Ship Of Fools, The Cowsills (MGM).

DIVERSIFICATION IS.

Numbers will never be able to compute the new areas of creative exploration for the Wes Farrell Organization. The development of contemporary pop music for advertising has already been produced for such clients as Coty—Dodge—Oldsmobile • Motion picture soundtrack scoring such as The Elephant's Memory featured in "Midnight Cowboy" • New production concepts in the tape field with Ampex Stereo Tape.

A COMPLETE POP MUSIC ORGANIZATION IS.

Their music has been played before– but not like Mancini plays it on "A Warm Shade of Ivory."

Henry Mancini's first album as a piano soloist, "A Warm Shade of Ivory" features his hit single "Love Theme from ROMEO AND JULIET." This album also includes outstanding music from recent motion pictures such as "Watch What Happens" (from "The Umbrellas of Cherbourg"), "The Windmills of Your Mind" (from "The Thomas Crown Affair") and "When I Look In Your Eyes" (from "Doctor Dolittle").

John Mayall—A Polydor accomplishment. This most respected English blues player will soon have his next chart album on Polydor.

Cat Mother and the All Night Newsboys—They promised. We delivered. Now you're selling.

Tony Williams Lifetime—A unique musical experience. Led by one of America's great percussionists.

James Last—His arrangements and orchestrations of good music have sold millions of records around the world—among them "Happy Heart".

Ten Wheel Drive—Fantastic reviews indicate that this jazz-rock group with singer Genya Ravan will be an important part of Polydor's growth. They are busy recording right now.

Jerry Corbitt—Formerly of the Youngbloods. On his own with an album we can't wait to get out.

Chris Farlowe—Britain's singing sensation. Watch for his new, exciting single.

The Savage Rose—Denmark's foremost rock group, good enough to be invited to the 1969 Newport Jazz Festival for their first American appearance.

Golden Earrings—Standing ovations greeted them at Fillmore West. Recording sessions being planned now.

Ken Lauber—J.S. says it's his thing. Remember Richie Havens, Tim Hardin and Janis Ian.

Finebilt presents the mŭl-tĭp′ō-tĕnt 69-5

A versatile new system for the precise high speed duplication of 4-track, 8-track, cassette, reel-to-reel or Playtape... 5 positions in one machine!

Webster defines multipotent as "having manifold power, or the power to do many things."

The Finebilt 69-5, by any definition, qualifies as a super duper.

Here are just a few features:

- ☐ Produces 2000 units per 8-hour shift.
- ☐ Quick 10-minute format changeover . . . thanks to Finebilt's exclusive "plug in/plug out" head assembly.
- ☐ Value engineering throughout. Electronics are solid state and plug-in.
- ☐ The single self-contained unit occupies just 14 sq. ft. of floorspace.
- ☐ No installation required. The 69-5 rolls on casters to any position — plugs in as easily as an electric shaver.
- ☐ Smaller original cost, minimum maintenance and operating cost, plus matchless performance, make the multipotent 69-5 the unduplicated duplicator.

Heat wave.

You've heard about the heat wave.

The wave of incredible recording artists and groups who scorch the charts with overnight hits. The hot performers and their instantaneous market.

GRT is the company that puts the hot records on tape the minute they start to move.

The company that gets those tapes to distributors almost immediately.

Isn't that the kind of wave to ride?

Golden Albums

THE LIST OF ALBUMS BELOW REPRESENTS THOSE RELEASES THAT THE RECORD INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA (RIAA) HAS CERTIFIED AND AUDITED AS HAVING EACH SOLD AN AMOUNT WORTH AT LEAST $1 MILLION AT FACTORY PRICES. THEY CONSTITUTE, NEEDLESS TO SAY, THE EVERGREEN CATALOG OF LP MERCHANDISE—IN ALL PHASES OF MUSIC—CURRENTLY AVAILABLE. THERE IS ALWAYS CONSUMER INTEREST IN THEM, AND WISE IS THE DEALER WHO CAN IMMEDIATELY FULFILL THE REQUEST FOR MOST, IF NOT ALL OF THE GOLD-DISK ALBUMS. DISPLAY OF THIS SHEET ALONG SIDE A BROWSER CALLED "GOLDEN ALBUMS" COULD INCREASE SALES.

THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGIN'

We are no longer hep. "Hubba Hubba" has lost all meaning for us. For the newest old company around, we somewhat modestly tell you we have the largest, youngest catalogue in the world. From Porter to Dylan, from Gershwin to Lightfoot, we've got the great ones. Our professional staffs, headquartered in New York, Los Angeles, and London, are the best in the business. The Chart busters for this past year include:

DAY IS DONE • LES BICYCLETTES DE BELSIZE
TALK UNTIL DAYLIGHT • SOMEDAY SOON
DO YOUR OWN THING • LET'S DANCE
GLAD SHE'S A WOMAN • RIBBON OF DARKNESS
RHYTHM OF THE RAIN • HEY LITTLE ONE
LOVE IS JUST A FOUR LETTER WORD • RED VELVET
TIME FOR LIVIN' • DOWN HERE ON THE GROUND
TIP-TOE THROUGH THE TULIPS

Next month will see the introduction of the fabulous "Reader's Digest Family Song Book," featuring a collection of standards from the W-7 Catalog. Our plans for the coming months are so exciting we hesitate to tell you for fear of straining your hearts. Just follow us and you'll see. Along with the rest of the industry.

Better Than Ever.

"It took the Byrds four years and countless personnel changes to get around to playing an L.A. rock ballroom, but their performances last weekend at the Pasadena Rose Palace made the wait worthwhile...the Byrds proved magnificent."
—John Mendelsohn, Byrds in Concert at Rose Palace, Los Angeles Times, May 19, 1969.

"The Byrds played for more than an hour, spurred on by an enthusiastic crowd which nearly filled the outdoor theater... The current membership of the Byrds also seems to be the best musical formation the group has yet had, at least from the standpoint of live performances."
—Pete Johnson, Ash Grove Benefit Held at Pilgrimage, Los Angeles Times, June 9, 1969.

when it comes to custom record pressing and tape duplication we do it all, all a lot better, and all ourselves.

The Viewlex Leisure Time Group

We do it all: From our recording studios or from your master tapes, lay-ups or negatives, and label copy, we custom manufacture the records and tape dupes, print the jackets and labels, put the whole thing together, and get it all out to D.J.'s, reviewers and buyers, rack jobbers, retailers, and distributors.

All ourselves: We take complete product responsibility, doing everything ourselves.

All a lot better: We control all the elements needed. We do it with fantastic speed, overnite to 80% of the national market. And with equally impressive quality.

And all for a lot of very demanding labels:

London □ Time-Life □ Spoken Arts □ Vox Production □ Musicor □ Elektra-Nonesuch Audio Fidelity □ Monitor □ The Everest Group Pavilion □ Caedmon □ Stereo Dimensions Polydor □ Heliodor □ Event □ Skye □ Project 3 Buddah □ T-Neck □ Curtom □ Tamla-Motown Request . . . to name just a few.

Every one of our coast-to-coast locations can provide our services, with the following total daily capacities:

Records	12″—140,000 a day 7″—250,000 a day
Tapes	8-track—20,000 a day cassette—10,000 a day (full capabilities in 4-track and reel-to-reel)

A quick review of all we can do for you, and how well we can do it . . . plus some things we didn't mention before.

- □ Complete studio and mastering facilities.
- □ Complete custom pressing & duplicating capabilities for records and tapes . . . all in-house.
- □ Over-nite from order to shipment from strategically-located plants.
- □ High available capacities.
- □ Unmatched quality, yet competitively priced.
- □ Your kind of professionalism.
- □ Solid, proven performance history.

And there's more: □ Custom record jacket and sleeve printing and fabrication. □ Design and manufacturing of professional tape duplicating equipment. □ Tape playback equipment for car and home.

CRITERION AUGMENTS PUBLISHING ACTIVITIES; PRODUCING POP RECORDS GLOBALLY

Criterion Music Corporation has diversified into an international publishing organization, with a record producing division and selling agency service with offices in Los Angeles, New York and Paris and agency agreements in England, Japan, Australia and South America. Through this set-up copyright acquisition is now world wide with Michael H. Goldsen, president, administering from Los Angeles, Joseph Goldfeder in New York and Jack Robinson in Paris handling the continent.

Since the trend is for publishers to go beyond making demos and actually produce masters, Criterion has successfully developed its own stable of artists which it leases to record companies. Gary Joe Cooper was placed on Polydor throughout the world. Deal was set in Paris by Jack Robinson, who also co-produced the first two sides, "WOULDN'T YOU REALLY RATHER HAVE ME?" and "LOVIN' IS BELIEVIN." Cooper records in Hollywood at Criterion's own studios, but discs are "sweetened" in Paris at CBE Studios, 8 track outfit associated with Mandy Music, Paris affiliate. Other French productions by Robinson are Eileen (pub's daughter) on Disc AZ and also Gilles Marchal on Capitol in U.S. and Hubert, famed Parisian disc jockey who records on Disc AZ. (Co-produced with Mandy Music's George Chatelain and Bernard Estardy.) Robinson also co-produced an L.P. for Lee Hazlewood for his own label, LHI.

In Hollywood, Criterion produced the Supachief, who are being signed by Polydor of France. L.P. is set for fall release with Don Drowty handling production. Jim Durst, folk oriented balladiscer has signed as writer and artist to produce his own L.P. Durst has original slant on social commentary in song which should create attention for package, which will be offered to other companies for release.

The Latin-American market has been opened with the lease of a company owned L.P. to Capitol, of BRAZIL '69, featuring Os Tres Brasileiros, Rio de Janeiro based outfit. First package has 6 standards and 6 originals. Second L.P. is now being recorded in Rio for fall distribution. Sonny Skylar was co-producer on deal.

The Polynesian market is still a strong specialty for Criterion with Hawaiian artists helping to develop standards. Recent blockbusters have been "TINY BUBBLES" and "PEARLY SHELLS" by Leon Pober, and launched by Don Ho and Haunani. Ho has disced about 12 tunes in his best selling Reprise L.P.'s. Island favorites in catalog number about 100 which are performed regularly by local artists, and hundreds currently on records.

Currently, Buddy Fo, who has the most spectacular group in Hawaii, is cutting Pober's "KISSES & WINE," a powerful novelty, for Capitol. Jeff Apaka's first release on same label is "BIG SUR COUNTRY (Close to Monterey Bay)." Other tunes being launched by Jeff and Ed Kenney are "LONELY DRIFTWOOD" by Arthur Hamilton ("Cry Me A River") and "LANTERN LIGHTS," Hal Spina sing-a-long, both broadcast on Webley Edwards global radio show, Hawaii Calls. The Hawaiian Surfers have "Misty Rainbow" as title tune in their new Decca LP.

Criterion's label REO TAHITI has 15 packages of authentic music and has scheduled a summer release of new L.P., "I LEFT MY HEART IN TAHITI," featuring a dozen hits from French Oceania by local chanters and musicians. Some of its best selling items are "DRUMS OF BORA BORA" and "BEAT OF TAHITI." Distribution in U.S. and Tahiti handled by parent company, while overseas sales set on various titles with Disc AZ for France and Vogue for Germany.

New material in contemporary style is created by staff writers under contract, including Gary Joe Cooper, John Gallie, Red West, Jim Durst, Don Drowty and Supachief, who pen most of their tunes. Cooper and West have had such hits as "I'M A FOOL," "SO MANY WAYS," "POWER OF LOVE," etc.

Since the trend toward artists and record companies going into publishing without a staff, Criterion offers its facilities to handle publication and collections. Servicing other publishers has been a policy of company for over twenty years. The selling agency department, operated out of New York, handles publication and distribution for such hits as "LOVE IS BLUE," "MARRY ME, MARRY ME," "FRIEND, LOVER, WOMAN, WIFE," "MUSIC TO WATCH GIRLS BY" and such folios as Rod McKuen's, Barney Kessel's THE GUITAR, etc. Sales, publication and production are part of complete publishing operation, with over 100 books and thousands of copyrights handled by Criterion's own staff.

Jack Robinson has acquired the French territory rights to such hits as Creedence Clearwater Revival's "PROUD MARY," "BORN ON THE BAYOU," "BAD MOON RISING," and "LODI;" also such standards as "SO FINE," "MOJO WORKOUT," The Canned Heat tunes, "BIG ROAD BLUES," & "THE ROAD SONG," and the important Lee Hazlewood catalog including the hit "SOME VELVET MORNING" just breaking again by The Vanilla Fudge. Some of the local Parisian recorded tunes are "LE LADY SCOTT," "VIVE LA SOCIETE," "DEPECHE-TOI BABY" (French version of HURRY ON DOWN), "LA P'TITE FLUTE," by Eddy Marnay and Emil Stern, winners of The Eurovision Song Contest of 1969, all recorded by Eileen on Disc AZ. Also, Gilles Marchal's "CRY NO MORE MARIA" (Ne Pleure Pas Ma Mie), Hubert's "MADEMOISELLE LOU," Rika Zarai's "THE WHISTLER," and "QUATRE CHEVAUX" by Eddy Marnay & Jeff Davis.

Criterion's standards are constantly being revived, with "DREAM," Johnny Mercer's all-timer being featured in Bob Hope's new film "HOW TO COMMIT MARRIAGE." Song recently disced by Mills Bros. for Dot and Sajid Khan for Colgems. Some of the highlights of the catalog are ACROSS THE ALLEY FROM THE ALAMO, BAJA (Lee Hazlewood), BERNIE'S TUNE, THE CHAMP, DEAR JOHN, DREAM, THE END, EVENING RAIN, FRIDAY'S CHILD, GEE BABY, AIN'T I GOOD TO YOU, HE'S A REAL GONE GUY, HOUSE OF BAMBOO, HOUSTON, HOW DOES THAT GRAB YOU DARLIN'?, HURRY ON DOWN, I'M A FOOL, IN THE PINES, INTERMISSION RIFF, INVITATION TO THE BLUES, I STAYED TOO LONG AT THE FAIR, IT HAPPENED ONCE BEFORE, IT'S A GOOD DAY, JUMPIN' WITH SYMPHONY SID, LAZY MOOD, LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL, LOOK IN MY EYES, MANANA, MARINA, MOONLIGHT IN VERMONT, MOUNTAIN HIGH, VALLEY LOW, THE M.T.A. SONG, MY SUGAR IS SO REFINED, NOT THE LOVIN' KIND, OFF SHORE, OKLAHOMA HILLS (Woody Guthrie), PEARLY SHELLS, PHILADELPHIA LAWYER (Woody Guthrie), PRETENDING, QUANDO LA LUNA, QUIET VILLAGE, ROBBINS NEST, SAND (Lee Hazlewood), SAVE THE BONES FOR HENRY JONES, SHADES, SHOO FLY PIE (And Apple Pan Dowdy), SONG OF INDIA (Johnny Mercer lyrics), SUGAR TOWN, SUMMER WINE (Lee Hazlewood), TAILGATE RAMBLE, TAMPICO, THESE BOOTS ARE MADE FOR WALKIN', TINY BUBBLES, THRU FOR THE NIGHT, TOUCH OF THE MASTER'S HAND, WALKIN' SHOES (Gerry Mulligan), WHAT MORE CAN A WOMAN DO (Peggy Lee), WHEN THE WORLD WAS YOUNG, and 30 Charlie Parker tunes, 48 Gerry Mulligan originals, etc.

Criterion maintains offices in Los Angeles in their own building at 6124 Selma Avenue; in New York at 150 West 55th Street; and in Paris at 27, Boulevard des Italiens.

INTERNATIONAL SECTION

GREAT BRITAIN - The Past 12 Months

The year beginning April 1st 1968 looked like one of despair at that time. The Budget proposals announced the previous month by Chancellor Roy Jenkins had inflicted savage blows without precedent on the leisure and entertainment industry — blows which several experts feared would cause its partial disintegration and a pile of bankruptcy business for the Official Receiver. Fortunately subsequent events showed that level of gloom to have been excessive, and proved beyond doubt the indomitable resilience and tenacity of the entertainment trade in riding and absorbing all the low punches thrown beneath a belt that has to be taken in several notches after every Budget.

The Purchase Tax

Chancellor Jenkins' spring Budget decision to classify records of every kind as luxury goods slapped on a 50% purchase tax impost and a whole new host of iniquitous anomalies. These latter are exemplified by the fact that you can buy the novel "Gone With The Wind" or see the movie version without paying a penny in taxation, but if you want the movie soundtrack album, the Chancellor's into your pocket for 50%. Repeated pleas from the industry that classical and educational disks at least should be exempt from this swingeing penalty have fallen on deaf governmental ears.

The Jenkins juggernaut rolled the price of a single up to eight shillings and fourpence, a full-price pop LP to 36 shillings and sixpence, and a full-price classical album over the £2 mark to 42 shillings and ninepence. However, the booming budget lines — most of them under £1 and the pacemakers of LP supremacy — gleaned an additional bonanza from the misfortunes of their higher-priced brethren, and are responsible for most of the lion's share of the market now cornered by the long-playing record. An increasing amount of budget repertoire is on a technical and artistic par with full-price material and its packaging is equally attractive and elaborate. Small wonder, then, that the public is veering more and more to a budget LP costing in most cases less than double the price of a single and less than half the price of a first-line LP.

The major record companies with budget lines of their own have welcomed the business, of course, though they glance askance at their full-price range which is also suffering from the budget boom. Significantly product at full-price is reappearing in some cases in budget form with great celerity. Singles by the elite minority of consistent hit artists still score and so do the periodic, unexpected flukes, but in lesser sales quantity than before. The year has marked a saner approach to the single in terms of policy. The old theory that if you throw sufficient semolina at the wall often enough, some of it must stick is being discarded gradually in favor of weekly release lists of more sensible and viable proportions. The single is increasingly the trail-blazing promotion vehicle for a parent album, a useful ploy for a radio programming setup that offers far more opportunity for single plugs as opposed to LP extracts.

Classical recording is an expensive proposition at the best of times with ever-rising overheads without taking into account a debilitating 50% purchase tax imposition. The classical market is a loyal one and showing slow signs of growth, but its smallness and the high cost of serving it are daunting problems, although it is safe to assume that the majors at least will continue active participation and production if only for reasons of prestige and cultural balance.

Tapes Suffer, Too

If records went reeling from that 50% flagellation, then pre-recorded tapes ended up virtually flat on their backs. Previously they had carried no purchase tax liability at all, but even then a musicassette, for instance, was seven shillings and sixpence dearer than its equivalent LP. Now, with the 50% penalty, it costs over 18 shillings more than the related LP, and inevitably it will be years before pre-recorded tapes can claim general public acceptance and any appreciable share of the music market. Philips had mounted a massive musicassette campaign with its own product and material from other majors, but this bludgeoning bombshell burst before a widespread breakthrough was achieved. Philips since has been adopting a grin-and-bear-it attitude, but a fledgling concern like University Recording took a shattering blow from the tax cudgel, and its present financial difficulties reveal the full extent of the crippling wound.

EMI Racks

EMI decided to continue its rack-jobbing operations after an experimental period of 18 months, and later announced the formation with Decca of a joint enterprise called Record Merchandisers Ltd., in which CBS and Pye are also participants. Racking seems to be progressing with less pain and acrimony than was expected, and with the general growth of the supermarket syndrome in all British retail areas, it is certainly here to stay. The concept of specialist disk dealers providing personal service and expert assistance to those purchasers who want it in music centers and racking operations catering for the more casual buyer appears to be the right and proper one for the future, and should lead to a sizeable expansion in turnover. The exact pattern and direction in retailing in the industry depends largely on the eventual findings of the Restrictive Practises Court on resale price maintenance in the record business.

The year was notable for some high-level wheeling and dealing which turned on the City stock pages of the national newspaper to what was happening in show business. EMI, encouraged by the acquisition of the Warner Brothers-Seven Arts 25% interest in the Associated British Picture Corporation, made a bid for the whole company, but flunked out initially on the question of ABPC's majority interest in Thames TV which would have clashed with EMI's own Grade Organisation agency interests in the adjudicating eyes of the Independent Television Authority. EMI returned to the fray again, however, and finally triumphed in January this year by a small margin.

Northern Songs Bid

The most notable takeover tussle of all, still unresolved at the time of writing, has centered on Northern Songs, publishers of the Beatle copyrights. Northern under managing director Dick James thwarted Sir Lew Grade and Associated TeleVision in a bid battle for the Lawrence Wright Music catalog, rich in moneyspinning standards, but then James and Northern chairman Emmanuel Silver made over their Northern holdings to ATV in return for cash and ATV stock. This led to an ATV offer to Northern shareholders, and a counter bid from The Beatles, indignant at these big business designs on their publishing outlet.

The Beatles were headline hoggers throughout the year on both professional and personal fronts. They launched their Apple Corps enterprise in the historic and palatial premises in Savile Row once tenanted by the late Jack Hylton. Things were soon swinging with their multi-million single "Hey Jude" and their double album and Mary Hopkin's runaway smash "Those Were The Days." But, in a genuine desire to foster artistic freedom and enterprise, The Beatles cast too much undiscerning bread on hippie waters, and the fiscal apples flowed out by the bushel. The arrival of Allen Klein as business adviser heralded a massive reorganization of purge proportions, and Apple now seems to be finding an even keel as a business organisation instead of being a hippie haven and hostel. Nevertheless the ordinary non-show biz mortals amongst the Northern Songs stockholders may be more impressed by the prospect of Sir Lew Grade, knighted for his ATV exports like "This Is Tom Jones," as the future Northern helmsman rather than by any nominee of "long-haired eccentrics" who appear in bed in public or meditate in sacks.

No Definite Trends

A notable feature of the year has been the continuing absence of any definite and dominant trend in pop music. Evidence of this dearth in direction lies in the spate of reissued single hits from a few years ago, regarded in some quarters as an indictment of the industry's present indecision and lack of creative imagination that finds public response. Underground is a word that has been bandied about frequently over the twelve months, and there have been determined efforts to get it off the ground like the launch of EMI's Harvest label. But, although London is still swinging (albeit with some audible creaks these days), there is so far no groundswell of interest in progressive rock in the provinces beyond the university campuses, and consequently the genre shows no signs of breaking beyond the bounds of a minority cult.

Where Joe and Josephine Public are concerned, it is still the less pretentious and more straightforward forms with basic ethnic roots that ring the cash registers. Hard rock, rhythm and blues, soul. The new old-style Elvis Presley, the late Otis Redding, Aretha Franklin, the Tamla Motown stable. Country and western is getting a fair crack of the whip via the MCA, RCA and CBS catalogs and generous BBC radio airtime. Venues like the Nashville Room in west London have opened to present the idiom, and Mervyn Conn's country music festival at Empire Pool, Wembley, attracted 10,000 people to the auditorium. But country music has yet to break big beyond its own corral into the charts, apart from fringe cases like "Gentle On My Mind" by part-time cowboys like Dean Martin or Glen Campbell's "Wichita Lineman."

As stated earlier, established favorites continued to draw custom, although not with the complete predictability of earlier years. Pop tours were in decline as a general rule, but their status and pulling power could probably be restored if a definite and universal trend emerged with suitably attractive and commercial exponents. The Beatles are forever, it seems, and so too are probably The Rolling Stones, in spite of them being dormant for most of the year under review. The Cream finally curdled, and went their separate ways, with the world at present waiting to sample their new super groupings to see if they will exert the same Creamy influence. The Shadows and The Seekers disbanded to the regret of antedivulians over twenty-five who admire polished professionalism, and Seeker Judith Durham started a promising solo career.

The BBC

The BBc continued shouldering the Atlas burden placed upon it of providing an alternative radio service to the pop-laden fare of the outlawed offshore pirate stations. Being all things to all men in radio terms isn't easy, especially when there are additional handicaps like slender financial resources and an intransigent Musicians Union strictly curtailing the amount of disk airplay. Robin Scott, the man midwife at the birth of Radios 1 and 2, moved on to the well-deserved quieter pastures of the Corporation's BBC 2 TV channel, and his place was taken by Douglas Muggeridge.

SELLING THE WORLD MARKET...

The worldwide market adds up to nearly a thousand million records representing over 40,000 years of continuous playing time! Knowing where these buyers are, their changing tastes, and how to serve and sell them is EMI's business.

If you are in the record business too, you'll want your share, and a bit more, from every area, however remote.

It's the "how" that slows most of us up.

As the world's largest record organisation with 29,000 employees, EMI feels qualified to answer this. But as a participant in the business—artist, manager or in related activities—you will be the final judge of what to do and where to do it. And today, the choices are many.

Perhaps it's oversimplifying it, but we believe that in choosing record companies around the world three yardsticks should be used: People, Plants and Prestige.

PEOPLE: Because it takes people to promote and sell records. EMI has promotion men in every continent who are in daily contact with those who influence record sales. Continuously throughout the year close to 800 EMI salesmen call on over 30,000 dealers. Each country is different, of course, in its customs and buying habits. And it's knowing that difference that pays off... one reason EMI sells one in every five records bought throughout the world.

PLANTS: EMI discovered long ago that if you don't own the plant you can't be sure of getting the quality and quantity of records you want—when you want them. It's as simple as that... And as sad as that, if you're an artist with a smash hit, unable to keep up with the orders (whilst your competitors make "cover records" to fill the demand). EMI has plants in 30 countries in Europe, America, Asia, Africa and Australia and presses more than two million records a week.

PRESTIGE: A great artist brings prestige to a company, true. Also true is the fact that a great company brings prestige to an artist. Wherever you may go, EMI and its labels are best known, and have been for generations. EMI prestige is the kind that helps in all negotiations related to the record business, too... bookings, tours, television appearances, motion pictures, etc. Big companies, with prestige, also offer personal and financial security in terms of keeping accurate records—paying obligations promptly, supporting the artist in every area of endeavour.

Incidentally, all this takes money in the bank—lots of it. EMI has it... in pounds, dollars, drachmas, pesos, yen—whatever you will. There are few record companies that can match its prestige and financial strength.

In any language EMI means record business.

fectiveness and Parliamentary enquiries were initiated into the functioning of the BBC, and their outcome is awaited to determine the future of sound broadcasting. Efforts have been made to obtain greater separation of program content between pop Radio 1 and middle-of-the-road Radio 2, hampered by shortage of funds and the relentless stranglehold of the Musicians Union. The latter distinguished itself during the year by causing the cancellation of a Sammy Davis TV series due to its refusal to permit him to use some of his own key musicians with a British orchestra, and banned The Nazz from recording here on sessions which would have also booked British musicians.

The MU has shown no sign of allowing more desperately required needle time to enable the BBC to discharge its radio responsibilities more adequately. The same threadbare justification is given — that more records will mean less work for MU members, but with no conclusive evidence to support this contention. It is an ironical fact that the BBC has well over 300 musicians on its payroll — by far the largest number employed by any public or broadcasting organisation in the world. The MU's right and authority to stultify programming and policy will inevitably be challenged ultimately — possibly when a Conservative Government implements its threat or promise (depending on your viewpoint) to introduce a minimum of 50 commercial radio stations. For the time being, the Socialist administration dogmatically defeated every attempt to inaugurate commercial radio on any scale on the grounds that the BBC's experiments in local radio at public expense should be given more time and scope. Radio Luxembourg's British beamings continued smoothly and happily, with a larger accent on live shows.

MIDEM '69

MIDEM 1969 won general plaudits throughout the British music industry which was well represented at Cannes, especially the publishing sector. The event is established as an international market place of growing importance, and many major deals and transactions owe their origin to many music men of many nations congregating at the Hotel Martinez. Considerably more than an exchange of views, theories and seminar addresses on industry topics emerges from Midem, and this year's vastly improved star galas constituted an excellent showcase for international talent as well as presenting established celebrities. Next year's Midem with its additional accommodation and facilities promises to be the best yet.

Eurovision

The Eurovision Song Contest reached its customary hundreds of millions of televiewers in several continents, but generally left a feeling of growing discontent in most of the competing countries, including Britain. Four joint winners was an inconclusive result, to say the least, and underlined the need for some final adjudicating authority in the event of future ties. The whole Eurovision system requires an overhaul if the number of countries taking part is not to diminish still further. Here in Britain there is considerable disapproval of the method of BBC TV in conjunction with various industry advisers making arbitrary choices of songwriters to contribute a short list for the UK's entry and also naming the artist to perform it. As far as the final contest itself is concerned, too many juries vote according to current political and nationalistic prejudices and alignments rather than by any musical criteria, and Eurovision cannot claim to represent the best songs of the countries involved any more than the eventual winner can be said to represent the best song in the contest. "Love Is Blue," now an international hit standard, proved the latter point by finishing fourth in the 1967 tourney.

Musical Stage

The London musical stage sustained more expensive casualties during the year than it scored box office triumphs. Exceptions to the dismal rule were the tribal rock musical "Hair" and "Mame" starring Ginger Rogers, whose arrival in Britain was surrounded by ballyhoo approaching prewar excesses. "Hair" has been a vibrant, revolutionary dose of theatrical adrenalin, but it is doubtful whether the London stage could support another similar show, even if it was as different and original. Cynics aver that "Hair" owes much of its success and certainly most of its useful initial publicity to the celebrated nude scene on the grounds that human beings used to seeing each other habitually clothed will always pay money to see some of their kind unclothed, no matter how momentarily. London's booming strip joints and cinemas specialising in exposures of the human anatomy tend to substantiate the theory.

Death took its usual sad toll during the year. Songwriter Michael Carr of "South Of The Border" fame; bandleaders Lew Stone and Billy Cotton; singers Edric Connor and Joy Marshall; Crazy Gangleader Bud Flanagan; showman Carroll Levis; vaudeville veteran Randolph Sutton, on the brink of renewed disk activity. And Lady Maisie Lewis, wife of Decca chairman Sir Edward Lewis, who took a staunch and dedicated interest in her husband's firm much appreciated by all its employees over nearly four decades.

The prospects for the next year are fair and challenging, subject to no distributing upheavals in the fiscal and economic areas or the country's overseas creditors getting uptight. America is exhibiting encouraging confidence in the British scene, judging by the growing trend of U. S. labels like A&M and Warner Brothers setting up independent operations here. Small operators like Sonet, Chapter One, DJM, Aurora and Taboo are joining earlier enterprises such as Page One, Island and Immediate to prove there is room and scope for lively minnows in amongst the mammoths. It's not size that's necessary, but what you do and the way that you do it.

E.M.I.

E.M.I. Records has had a very successful year during 1968-69. In a chart analysis carried out at the end of 1968 it emerged as top singles and albums company with an average of 29.9% of the singles charts and 31.6% of the album charts. Awards were presented for these achievements to E.M.I. Records' managing director Ken East in February 1969. Success in both markets has meant the growth of the E.M.I. popular record catalogue that is second to none. During the year, the fantastic success of the American Tamla Motown label in the U.K. has been absolutely staggering. Diana Ross and The Supremes, The Isley Brothers, Stevie Wonder, Marvin Gaye, Tammi Terrell and Martha Reeves and the Vandellas are just a few of the artistes who have had best selling singles and albums released by E.M.I. A tremendous number of entries were received for the Tamla Motown competition "Win a Motown Mini" which ran from 10th January to 28th February. Visiting artistes from abroad who have appeared on tour and on British television have included Mireille Mathieu, Diana Ross and the Supremes, The Beach Boys, Chris Bartley, Liberace, Edwin Starr, Mama Cass, John Lee Hooker, Stevie Wonder, Carla Thomas, Reginc, Buck Owens, Marv Johnson, Jim Webb, Richard Harris, Johnny Nash, Gene Pitney, Wallace Collection, B.B. King, Bruce Channel, Lou Rawls, Bobbie Gentry, Oscar Toney Jr and Bob Thiele. American executives visiting E.M.I.'s Manchester Square headquarters in London have included Barney Ales (Tamla Motown); David Berger and Larry Newton (ABC Records); Muriel Gaynor and Jay Lasker (Dunhill Records); Kelly Gordon, Stanley Gortikov, Bob Klein, Brown Meggs, Ken Nelson and Charles Phipps (Capitol Records); Seymour Stein (Sire Records); Larry Uttal (Bell Records) and Larry Weiss (Saturday Music). Four new labels were introduced. The first of these was the famous Impulse jazz label launched in June 1968, with such artistes as Zoot Sims, John Coltrane, Chico Hamilton, Dizzy Gillespie, Shirley Scott and Gabor Szabo. In July the Command label was issued by E.M.I. and the first release on this stereo-only label was "And Paris Listens To The Magic" by Benny Goodman. The Stax label was released by E.M.I. in October with an instant hit by Judy Clay and William Bell "Private Number". November heralded the Dunhill label released here under the Stateside/Dunhill logo. Top selling recording stars for this label include Richard Harris, Steppenwolf, Mamas and the Papas, Mama Cass and Three Dog Night. At the June Sales Conference a new campaign was announced under the title "Assignment Athens" — a follow-up to the highly successful "Fly To The Sun" campaign organized during the previous year. Top British singer Cliff Richard and his group The Shadows were honoured at a special reception in September 1968. The occasion marked their tenth anniversary in the recording industry. A special album featuring 14 new Shadows compositions was released on the Columbia label "Established 1958". In the 1968 Eurovision Song Contest Cliff Richard was placed second with "Congratulations". His recording went to the top of the charts in many countries and earned Cliff a Gold Disk for sales of over one million. For the second year running an E.M.I. artiste was chosen to represent Britain in the Eurovision Song Contest. Held in Madrid Lulu was placed joint first with "Boom Bang-a-Bang" and her recording went on to become a best seller in most countries of Europe. Columbia's Studio Two Stereo series went from strength to strength and in December a new series "Nights at the Theatre" was introduced which included new recordings of such famous shows as "The Dancing Years"; "Perchance to Dream"; "Glamorous Night"; "The Count of Luxembourg" and "The Arcadians". The new Music Centre Concept introduced by Sales Director John Fruin in March becomes operational in July. The Beatles continued their fantastic, unbroken line of success. E.M.I. gave permission for The Beatles to use their own name on the Apple label although they are still contracted to E.M.I. Records. Singer/comedian Des O'Connor provided E.M.I. with one of its best selling singles with "I Pretend" (Columbia) which sold nearly half a million in the U.K. alone. The Scaffold also sold half a million copies of their "Lily The Pink" single. Louis Armstrong scored with "What a Wonderful World" which also sold half a million and won an award as the Best Single of 1968. At E.M.I.'s recording studios in Abbey Road, a new 24-channel mixer was installed in Studio 2 and new 8-track recording machines were added to the recording apparatus. An E.M.I. subsidiary company, World Record Club, had the honour of gaining first and third places in the popular section of the New Musical Express LP sleeve design competition. First prize was awarded to "The Andrew Sisters Sing The Roaring Twenties" and third place to "Laughing Waters" by The Kontikis. Appointments during the year included Colin Hadley, EMI's former Manager of Marketing and Planning Services, becoming General Manager of World Record Club. His place at E.M.I. was taken by Cliff Busby. D.Sinclair became Marketing Manager of W.R.C. and A.F. Bennett took charge of W.R.C.'s outward licensing. Gordon Collins, formerly, Distribution Manager with E.M.I. Records, became Managing Director of the Columbia Gramophone Company of Greece Ltd. Mr. Collins was succeeded by his former assistant Kerry Humphries. Miss Patricia Pretty became Press Officer for E.M.I. Records' Popular Repertoire. E.M.I's music publishing company, Ardmore & Beechwood, had an extremely successful year. They renewed their distribution arrangement with the American owned Saturday Music; signed a new agreement with Dorallo Music and were responsible for publishing Andy Williams hit song "Can't Take My Eyes Off You". The Hayes factory has just completed the first stage in the installation of automatic presses. 48 of the new presses are now operational. Overseas sales of British made records have been most spectacular. Disks by Cliff Richard, Lulu, The Beatles, Graham Bonney, Dave Clark Five, Herman's Hermits and Pepe Jaramillo have all achieved considerable sales around the world. Future plans for E.M.I. Records include the release and distribution of the Paramount Records label. First issue on the new label the soundtrack from Richard Attenborough's spectacular film "Oh What a Lovely War".

DECCA RECORDS

Decca launched its "World Of . . ." LP series during the year under review, and it proved an instant success with artists represented including Val Doonican, Lulu, Kenneth McKellar, Frank Chacksfield, Vera Lynn, Julie Felix and Roberto Mann.

The emergence of The Moody Blues as a prime and highly original act in the context of LP planning, programming and performance continued with international success. "In Search Of The Lost Chord" and "On The Threshold Of A Dream," which hit the No. 1 mark within a week of its release, followed the group's initial LP hit "Days Of Future Passed."

Mantovani enjoyed another outstandingly successful year at home and abroad on all his LP product, and "Beggars' Banquet" by The Rolling Stones sold heavily after a protracted dispute about the design and contents of its sleeve.

February this year marked an unprecedented Boots Randolph promotion month launched in conjunction with Monument Records. Four Randolph albums and a single were released during the month for the campaign, the first staged by Monument outside America.

The "Demand Performance" series of reissues was inaugurated, producing two repeat hits in "River Deep Mountain High" by Ike and Tina Turner and "You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling" by The Righteous Brothers.

Decca began distributing product from Les Reed's Chapter One label, and acquired Jimmy Bowen's Amos label for release. Songwriter and author Jonathan King joined the company as a producer and talent scout.

Decca's classical activities maintained their usual pace and acclaim.

record labels representing a rich diversity of music and established educational product might seem perhaps more than one independent company could hope to service effectively. But Transatlantic Records Limited, through its time-tested sales, graphics & promotional organisation is doing very well with them, thank you.

WHERE TRENDS BEGIN

In December 1968 the four recordings making up the company's issue of Wagner's complete "Ring" cycle, together with a set of three records containing the analysis by Deryck Cooke of the musical structure of the "Ring," were issued in a magnificent presentation box. The initial issue has been heavily oversubscribed, and continues to achieve a high level of sales.

The set of the complete symphonies of Sibelius by the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra under Lorin Maazel was completed with the issue of the 3rd, 4th and 6th Symphonies.

The death early in 1969 of the octogenarian Swiss conductor Ernest Ansermet ended a long exclusive and successful association with Decca with a rich legacy of music by a wide variety of composers. The company will be issuing a suitable tribute in due course. The Academic Charles Cros made a special "In Memoriam" award to Ansermet.

Other honors won by Decca group classical repertoire during the year were as follows. Decca: Audio Awards for Berwald's 3rd and 4th Symphonies by the London Symphony Orchestra under Sixten Ehrling and Benjamin Britten's "Billy Budd" opera with a cast and the London Symphony Orchestra conducted by the composer; the Italian Critics' Award for Britten's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" with the composer conducting the cast and the same orchestra; an Edison Award for Haydn's "The Creation" with a cast and the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Karl Munchinger, a version which also received an "In Honorem" award from the Academie Charles Cros; Grand Prix du Disque de L'Academie Charles Cros for Mozart's 20th and 6th piano concertos by Vladimir Ashkenazy and the London Symphony Orchestra under Hans Schmidt-Isserstedt and Mozart's opera "La Clemenza Di Tito" with a cast and the Vienna State Opera Orchestra under Istvan Kertesz; and a Montreux International Recording Award for Straus's "Elektra" with a cast and the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Georg Solti.

Argo: Audio Awards for Gerhard's Concerto for Orchestra and Rawsthorne's 3rd Symphony by the BBC Symphony Orchestra under Norman del Mar and Wilfrid Owen: Poetry And Letters; Edison Awards for Mozart's Divertimenti in D, B and F and Serenata Notturna by the Academy of St. Martin-in-the-Fields Orchestra conducted by Neville Marriner and Shaw's "St. Joan" (spoken word).

The Telefunken recording of Telemann's "Der Getreue Music Meister," an Archive production, received an Edison Award, and the Decca Phase 4 "Wagner Festival" received the Grand Prix du Disque de L'Academie Charles Cros.

PYE RECORDS

Louis Benjamin, managing director of Pye Records reports that the year has been another successful one for the company but, regardless of the success, attention has been paid to the consolidation and reorganization of the Pye Records group of companies in view of the increased competition in the UK market brought about by the advent of newly formed record companies in their own right. New licenses for the pressing, distribution and sale in the UK of important American product such as that of the Metromedia organization have been successfully negotiated, and continuing agreements operate to press and distribute the UK releases of A&M. Current negotiations are being finalized for pressing and distribution of Warner-Reprise, following eight years of success as licensee. Pye's direct distribution scheme has paid handsome dividends by way of agreements for pressing and distributing repertoire emanating from the Walt Disney catalogue, Dick James Music (DJM), Tepee and Head Records. In order to achieve maximum impact on the UK market, Pye Records diversifications strengthened in April this year. Pye purchased the remaining equities of the Alex Strickland chain of 15 retail shops, and thus assumed 100% control. The reasoning behind this was that, by having full ownership of retail outlets, the management felt they were able to keep their finger on the pulse of the market at all times. In order to face the increasing output of records by the industry at large, Pye Records has invested heavily in the further modernization of its pressing plant at Mitcham. This modernization will not only accelerate the output of pressings, but also allow Pye to play its part in the growing competitive field of custom pressing. Similarly, in regard to the studios, 8-track facilities have now been installed in both main studios, together with a specially designed new mixing console. By so doing, Pye has retained, and continues to build, its outside work which has resulted in many Top 10 hits on competitive labels. Welbeck Music, Pye's publishing division, again has enjoyed a year of success, and currently arrangements are being made to develop this important division on a more autonomous basis than previously. During the year further development of the vital overseas link — which is becoming more important to UK companies each day — was achieved by new catalog deals in Japan with Nippon Columbia; in Canada with Phonodisc, Italy with Ricordi, and other licenses were renewed in various other territories of the world. The 9th annual conference was attended by leading figures of the record industry from twenty countries, and cordial personal relationships were cemented and strengthed by this two-day tour de force, at which speakers from different countries and from various related activities (BBC, commercial radio, publishing, artiste representation etc.) gave their own points of view at a most stimulating session. Chart successes during the year included home grown singles by Donovan, The Paper Dolls, Sue Nicholls, Status Quo, Long John Baldry, Jimmy James and The Vagabonds, Val Doonican, The Foundations, Sandie Shaw, The Kinks, and Jackie Trent whilst American artistes who notched up successes here included Dionne Warwick, 1910 Fruitgum Co., Ohio Express, Pigmeat Markham, Dean Martin, Herb Alpert and Frank Sinatra. On the album front, twenty or so popular releases went into the year's best selling charts. These included Val Doonican, Donovan, Tony Hatch and Jackie Trent, The Kinks, Petula Clark and Geno Washington and the Ram Jam Band — all of whom had two separate chart achieving albums. Nancy Sinatra and Lee Hazlewood's album went high, as did her father Frank's "Greatest Hits". Similar success was attained by Dean Martin, Dionne Warwick, The Family and "The Stars of 68" but the most consistently successful albums of the year were by Herb Alpert, who registered with no less than four. A number of Pye Records' British artistes have also had considerable success overseas, including The Montanas, Status Quo, Jimmy James and The Vagabonds, The Foundations, and Long John Baldry, whose "Mexico" single was widely used on radio and TV in connection with the 1968 Olympic Games. The new Marble Arch stereo double-packs, under the generic title of "Stereo 2" which presented two 12-inch albums in an attractive pack at an original price of 27 shillings and sixpence (later raised by the tax increase to 28 shillings and twopence) proved a most worthwhile innovation besides providing the lowest-priced quality stereo on the British market. Due to the heavy increases in British purchase tax on gramophone records, the term "Budget Label" took on an added significance during the year. With singles priced (retail) at the 8 shillings and sixpence mark (just over one dollar) the importance of low-priced albums selling at less than double that price (even allowing for tax) has become apparent, and the range of the Marble Arch label in particular has been widened still further to include a full spectrum of entertainment. At the same time, the Marble Arch sleeves were re-designed to achieve an even better point of sales impact, and the records became 100% exchangeable to the trade. On the Pye Golden Guinea series, regional etchnic interests were fully served with Welsh and Scottish albums selling well, whilst other nations were represented by albums of music from Germany, Hawaii, Greece, Israel and Ireland. Some of the biggest and most popular selling lines are the brass and military bands (especially in the North of England) and this year Pye's Golden Guinea label has done particularly well in catering for this market. In addition to featuring some of Britain's well-known bands, a contrast was provided by the album "Sousa Plays Sousa" taken from original cylinders of some fifty years ago, and the National Youth Brass Band of Great Britain album "Voices of Youth". In the latter connection Pye Records instituted an annual trophy in the form of a silver cup to be presented to the most promising young musician of this band. A wide range of classicial music is also represented on Golden Guinea as well as on the Virtuoso series which features comparative rareties performed by leading exponents in the musical world. Particularly successful was the stereo triple album set of the eighteen Chorales of J.S. Bach played by Ralph Downes at the organ of the Royal Festival Hall, London. The beginning of 1969 saw the inauguration of Pye's 10th anniversary of association with its parent company Associated Television and a special "10 year" logo was designed for the occasion for use of advertisements, posters and other literature. A new house magazine has been started to highlight pressings, personalities and personnel and this was well received by the press and industry at home and abroad. New marketing ideas resulted in the setting-up of an informal marketing committee within the company at which present and future problems are discussed and plans for the individual promotion, publicity and presentation of the product are made. HOLLAND - THE PAST 12 MONTHS

On August 27th 1968 the brand-new offices of N. V. PHONOGRAM were officially opened by the Lord Mayor of Amsterdam, Dr. I. Samkalden. The new office combines all the various departments, which were spread all over Amsterdam in the past, and holds a fine photo-studio, a large reception-hall, a computer-room, a roof-terrace, etc. etc. As usual, N.V. Phonogram had the biggest part of the hit-singles in the last year, which increased the company's share in the TV- and radio world. Among the many, many artists visiting Holland to promote their records on TV were: Spooky Tooth, Bob & Earl, The Free (Island), Honeybus, John Mayall, The Moody Blues, The Flirtations, Dave Berry, The Web, The Casuals, Timebox, Hildegard Knef (Decca/Deram), Enrico Macias, Alexandra, Alexis Korner, Marty Wilde, Madeline Bell, Dave Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mick & Tich, The Herd, Dusty Springfield, Rika Zarai, Elis Regina, Colosseum (Philips/Fontana), Felice Taylor and The Equals (President). Also the co-operation with promoters and agents was very satisfying, since big artists as John Mayall, Bill Haley, Enrico Macias, The Moody Blues, Ike & Tina Turner, Blue Cheer, Fairport Convention, Group Therapy, Juliette Greco, Traffic and many others were in Holland for concert-appearances. Most of last year's publicity stunts from the well-known "Phonogram promotion team" resulted in excellent sales. This promo trio did campaigns for Blue Cheer, Bill Haley, the Phonogram Country & Western repertoire, Hugh Masekela, stereo LPs (Living Presence and Phase 4 series), the Island label, Mantovani, Jimi Hendrix' PPX recordings and an impressive campaign for 14 "White Blues" LPs. Phonogram's John Ros did excellent work for many Dutch artists in various countries. The recognition which several local records have found abroad was mainly the result of Ros' tremendous efforts and enthusiasm for the Dutch talent. Records of o.a. Frankie & The Timebreakers, Zen, Mike Tingley, After Tea, The Motions and Cuby & The Blizzards were released in the United States, while England was interested in After Tea, The Free and Cuby & The Blizzards. Eurovision Song Contest winner Lenny Kuhr's record "The Troubadour" was released in almost every European country and also John Woodhouse's name should be known in several countries, since many Philips organizations released LPs of the MIDEM Trophee winner. Dutch singer Shirley Martin signed with the Stigwood/Gunnell organization to start a career in England. In the past year N.V. Phonogram acquired the rights for the classical German Harmonia Mundi label, the British Beacon label, the US underground label ESP Disk' and for Bam-Bam Productions, London. One of the most interesting classical projects in the Berlioz-year was without doubt the remarkable first release in the Philips Berlioz cycle under the famous conductor Colin Davis. A two record set of the fascinating "Romeo et Juliette" was introduced by Colin Davis in January during a successful Phonogram press-reception. Within two months time N.V. Phonogram sold more than 10,000 copies of a Bernard Haitink promotion album at budget line price. The young Irish tenor Frank Patterson signed an exclusive contract with Philips and recorded his first LP with Purcell songs. Mozart interpreter par excellence Ingrid Haebler reached the first place in sales with the Mozart complete piano concertos (12 LPs) in the Philips subscription campaign. The British chamber orchestra The Academy of St Martin in the Fields is quite well-known now in Holland, because of Phonogram's promo-activities and the release of a great number of Argo and Decca LPs. A promotion album of The Academy was last year's absolute winner in quality and sales figures. A very impressive item on the Dutch record market was the special Decca presentation box (22 LPs!) of Wagner's complete Ring of Nibelungs.

Bovema's progress in the season 1968/69 is proved by the tremendous growth of the turnover which increased the marketpercentage of this EMI-subsidiary. Better methods have been developed for the marketing of the fabulous repertoire. Different kinds of music were brought together in a range of series with one recognizable presentation. The "Bovema Success Series" which started in September, was supported with tremendous publicity and promotion material in an amount and quality which was unknown so far in the history of Bovema. Among the big releases we mention: Country & Western action, a series with the international top talents, Jazz-repertorie Campaign and a special series with Grand Gala artists. The same idea of uniformity and pushing salespower behind a certain group of records was followed in the classical-label department. In the autumn 1968 and the spring 1969 some big subscription actions were launched with a.o. the most successful luxurious box of the Dutch ensemble for medieval music Syntagma Musicum of Kees Otten. The last subscription action was prepared and produced in wonderful co-operation with the EMI-branches in the European community Significant for the strong classical repertoire of Bovema were the five Edison-awards for Bovema records. This amount has been the greatest ever awarded to one company. The trailer of record business is the hit position of the company. In the last year Bovema increased its share of the Top Forty Veronica-list to about 25%. Top ten hits were: Hey Jude & Ob La Di, Ob La Da & Get Back — by the Beatles; Congratulations & Good Times — by Cliff Richard; Do It Again & Blue Birds Over The Mountain & I Can Hear Music — by the Beach Boys; Those Were The Days & Goodbye — by Mary Hopkin; Lazy Sunday — by the Small Faces; Listen To Me & Sorry Suzanne — by the Hollies; Camp — by Sir Henry & The Butlers; If I Only Had Time — by John Rowles; With A Little Help From My Friends — by Joe Cocker; Angel Of The Morning — by Merrilee Rush; On The Road Again — by Canned Heat; Lily The Pink — by the Scaffold; Games People Play — by Joe South; Boom-Bang-A-Bang — by Lulu; Dizzy — by Tommy Roe. From the Dutch productions we mention the many hits of the Cats, The Buffoons, Gloria and Brainbox. In the last season a trend was shown to a bigger share of American repertoire in the total pop market. The progressive pop was responsible for big sales in albums, like that of the Band with their music from Big Pink. Bovema is very happy to get the distribution rights for the Dunhill/Command label. Bovema followed the increasing cartridges-market by releasing not only imported material but even by producing a range of Dutch productions for this purpose. The promotion-department took its advantages of a better organization and a younger team to penetrate in the world of press, radio and television. Many foreign artists came to Holland to promote their records. Under which Lou Rawls, Ray Charles, Beach Boys, John Rowles, Mary Hopkin, the Hollies, Joe Cocker, Cliff Richard, Lulu, Gilbert Becaud, Buck Owens, Amalia Rodrigues, Deep Purple, 5th Dimension, John Lennon and Yoko Ono and some artist-packages from the States like those of the Newport Jazz Festival and the American Blues Festival. Press-conferences were organized on ships, in planes and clubs. The introduction of the Apple-label has been one of the most successful. The Bovema delivery-centre introduced new methods to streamline the handling of the orders, so that the records can be delivered to the shops within six hours from the demand. A special Import Service (SIS) has been set up for connoisseurs' repertoire. The most important re-organization of Bovema was certainly the new set-up of the label department, working now under general management of Roel Kruize together with commercial-manager Ben J. van den Berg. The studio-facilities of Gramophone House were enlarged by the building of two new studios, which opened new possibilities for the Dutch production-team. This branch of Bovema expanded considerably by contracting a group of producers each handling a part of the repertoire. Specialists are now in charge of religious repertoire, Folk repertoire and Pop repertoire. The children repertoire has got some wonderful material from the Walt Disney catalogue, like the Jungle Book album. The Disneyland records were reproduced in the Dutch language. In the new set-up the Dutch production-team can easily face the competition. The taking over of the Iramac company brought some very interesting Dutch artists under Bovema contract.

In many ways, the period of June 1968 until May 1969, emphasized the continuing growth of CBS HOLLAND again. Besides some enormous hit-singles, such as Andy Williams' "Battle Hymn Of The Republic", of which royalties will be donated to the Robert Kennedy Memorial Fund, CBS has had The Tremeloes (My Little Lady), Marmalade (Ob La Di), Gary Puckett & The Union Gap, O.C. Smith, Cupids Inspiration, etcetera. Currently Simon & Garfunkel's "The Boxer" is in the charts. The ever-increasing sales of Pop-Albums in all categories as well as the CBS "Rock Machine" concept with artists such as Blood, Sweat And Tears, Bob Dylan, The Byrds, Spirit, Electric Flag, Janis Joplin, Moby Grape, Al Kooper and Mike Bloomfield, Simon & Garfunkel, Grace Slick, Leonard Cohen and many others have proved that CBS is one of the best labels in the Underground, Rock, and U.S.A. Scene. Further best-selling Albums include: Iwan Rebroff, Barbra Streisand's "Funny Girl" and Simon & Garfunkel's "The Graduate", Ray Conniff and so on. CBS artists who visited Holland during the past period: The Peddlers, Chambers Brothers, Moby Grape, Janis Joplin, Clive Sands, Marmalade, The Tremeloes, Love Affair, Dave Brubeck & Gerry Mulligan and Paul Revere & The Raiders. In the local scene CBS has produced two more Albums by the world-famous group The Kilima Hawaiians, entitled "Tropical Breeze" and "Terang Bulan". In the classical field, the most important event of the past period has been CBS' Leonard Bernstein's Grand Gala Du Disque appearance with the New York Philharmonic as well as the Edison Award for his Mahler interpretations. Generally speaking there still is a considerable increase in classical sales, also thanks to names as Pierre Boulez, Eugene Ormandy, George Szell, Igor Stravinsky and many others. Also CBS started with the series: "Modern Music Of Our Time" including works by Berio, Stockhausen, Boulez, Carter and so on. Peter Nero and Luciano Berio will appear at the Holland Festival.

The season 1968/69 NEGRAM-DELTA reigned the Dutch underground scene. A long string of Elektra, Warner Brothers & Reprise underground albums were released, backed by a heavy promotion. Groups like The Doors, Family, Paul Butterfield Blues-band, Eclection a.o. visited Holland to broaden their impact here. Another section of the record industry in which Negram has played an important role, is the soul-field. In 1968 the company released its first Stax-singles; now just one year later a series of 27 new albums is issued and numerous Stax, Volt & Hip singles have gained good sales. Most successful Stax artists proved to be Booker T. & The M.G.'s. In the operetta field Negram led the way by a very fast expansion of its Ariola/Eurodisc repertoire. Most important albums released on the label are "Pariser Leben", "Schon Ist Die Welt", "Friederika", "Paganini" and "Giuditta". The formula Rudolf Schock-Margit Schramm-Robert Stolz has proved to be the most successful team making Operetta albums. Ariola singles and albums by Peter Alexander and Udo Jurgens have gained strongest sales in the east part of the country. Udo Jurgens visited Holland a few times for radio & T.V. promotion and will return in the autumn for a concert tour. The Negram represented Pye label has offered the Dutch public a number of hits by a new discoveries like Consortium, The Flying Machine, Status Quo and Foundations. Of course Sandie Shaw, Chris Andrews, Dave Davies and The Kinks took care of even more hits. A strong promotion was given to Pye's Marble Arch line. A sampler was released, dealer campaigns were organised, folders were printed, all kinds of display material were made and a long series of strong albums were issued. Like every year Sammy Davis, Dean Martin, Nancy and Frank Sinatra were responsible for the most consistent sales of the Warner and Reprise catalogue. Thanks to a magnificent appearance at the Grand Gala Du Disque all albums and the single "I Shall be Released" by Miriam Makeba stirred up great sales figures. New recording artists Van Morrison, Family, Tiny Tim and newly signed Fugs and Mothers Of Invention were more successful with their albums than in the single-field. Quite surprising was the sudden come-back of good old Fats Domino, who scored a tremendous hit with "Lovely Rita". This year Elektra singer Judy Collins was awarded an Edison by the C.C.G.C. for her superb album "Wildflowers". The complete Elektra catalogue got a strong push by the highly successful sampler "Elektrifying". New groups Rhinoceros, David Peel, Dillards, newly signed Nico, David Ackles and Lonnie Mack were launched, whilst the Doors were responsible for most Elektra sales. This season Negram launched a new series entitled "Presenting . . . " in which next to local material Kapp and Dot Albums were issued. Rather successful albums in the series were those by Pat Boone, Del Shannon, Eartha Kitt and Louis Armstrong. On the Kapp label the LP "Cream Of Country" was launched to kick of the complete Kapp C & W series. Especially Mel Tillis has since become a renown country artist. Quite successful on the Kapp label was the new discovery Silver Apples, of which two albums were issued. Negram has been emphasizing this year the importance of Dot as a specific Easy Listening label. Strong promotion was given to newly released album by the Mills Brothers, Luiz Bonfa, Billy Vaughn, Anita Kerr Singers a.o. June will be Negram's Billy Vaughn month. Negram's managing director Hans I. Kellerman is very content with the results of the season 1968/69. Sales figures are still rapidly rising and the foreign labels furnish Negram with splendid material, promising an even better season 69/70. Strong attention will be paid to Negram's chart-postion, currently secured by Desmond Dekker, Jefferson, Kinks, Tee Set, Chris Andrews and Sandie Shaw. Negram's Promotion department will give even more attention to the Easy Listening Repertoire of the company. Negram's label chiefs, promo men and managing director Hans Kellerman are raving about the tight contacts with all foreign affiliates, which they hope to continue in the future.

For BASART RECORDS INTERNATIONAL the past year has been marked by increased activity in the field of signing and recording local artists. Artists signed to the label include top group Roek's Family, the records of which have been placed in many territories throughout the world, Song festival-participant Linda Ross, Franky Franken and the female vocal act The Hearts of Soul. Foreign exploitation of these artists and those previously signed to Basart's labels is in full swing. Catalogue deals have been set up with Clan Celentano in Italy, with Espectra in Spain, numerous incidental deals have been concluded with Philipston and Metronome in Germany and Scandinavia, Barclay in France, Tangerine and Major Minor in England, Dates-CBS, Jamie Records, Tamla-Motown and Musicor Records in the U.S. Highlights in Basart's pop repertory were Adriano Celentano's Azzurro and Roek's Family's Get Yourself a Ticket, both longtime charters, and the introduction of the Turnette-label, offering budget-priced records of high quality. In the classical field continued success for the Turnabout-series and great interest in the newly-introduced Vox-Candide label assure a steady increase of sales. The Royal Military Band, during the first year of its contract to the Basart Company having recorded one concert album and several popular singles, is now preparing an album containing a Promenade Concert, release of which is to coincide with the Band's 140th anniversary in July of this year. Summarizing Basart Records International is continually improving its position on the Dutch record market, clearly shown by a 35% increase of gross receipts compared to the previous yearly period of June 1967 to June 1968.

In the beginning of the season 1968/69 DURECO started with the new pop-label "Pink Elephant". The first release was "Lucy Brown Is Back In Town" of shocking Blue. Up till now all Pink Elephant-productions reached the Top-40. On the occasion of the 1000-years existence of the place Urk, Dureco released an LP, "1000-years Urk" by the Urker Manchoir, of which 5,000 copies were sold in one month. In June 1968 "Camp" from Sir Henry and The Butlers was a great hit. In July Ben Cramer had a great success with his performance at the Knokke-festival. In August Dureco obtained the representation for Holland of the "Disk-A.Z."-label, first hit on this label was "Alouette" by Gilles Dreu. In September Dureco got the Dutch distribution for the new English label "Morgan Records". Dureco's producer Gert Timmerman discovered the wonderchild Wilma. Her single "Heintje Baue Ein Schloss Fur Mich" stirred up to sales-figures of 200,000 in the Netherlands, Germany, Austria and Belgium. Owing to this success many TV-performances were realized in Germany, Belgium and Austria. In October Ben Cramer obtained a first and special price during the "Coupe d'Europe Musicale" in Innsbruck, Austria; he also acted during the MIDEM-festival in Cannes. In January Dureco obtained the sole representation for JAD-records; first releases: "Hold Me Tight" LP and "Cupid". During the "Grand Gala Du Disque" the Dimitrievitch Family were most successful. Dureco was the first on the Dutch market with "Casatchok". On May 16th Dureco signed a contract with Peter Schroder for the distribution of the Olga-records in Holland. A big Dureco-hit was "Big Bamboo" by the Merrymen.

Inelco Holland released in October last year an LP, entitled: "The American Tribal Love-Rock Musical Hair", on RCA Victor. Many established artists took songs from the musical and had hits, hits and hits. The original Cast on RCA Victor, the "mother of hits 1969", became a bestseller for Holland and later also for America and many other countries. Nina Simone reached for the first time the first position in the Dutch Top 40 with, of course, a song from "Hair": "Ain't Got No — I Got Life". She remained for five weeks in first position. Nina Simone's sensational LP "Nuff said" with "Ain't Got No — I Got Life" and many other great songs, became a bestseller; she became very popular in Holland. She was in Holland in June 1968 and in March '69 with lots of success. A television show of Nina, with of course "Ain't Got . . ." was interrupted by a direct reportage of the sensational "Apollo 8 flight" on Christmas day, when the complete Dutch population watched television; without any doubt the best publicity for moon, Apollo 8 and Nina Simone. During the last four months of '68 Inelco had special well-planned campaigns for the most important records: a campaign for all the records of famous Mr. Arthur Rubinstein, who was three times in Holland during the last year (June '68, October '68 and April '69)' with as special promotion a low-priced LP with works of Chopin. This record became one of the best sold LP's at Inelco's during the last year. Also Inelco's campaign for Amadeo, Amanda and Amphora was quite a success. Wie Schon Ist Doch Musik" is the title of a special album (4 records) on Elite: very good sales. In 1967 Inelco was the first with a campaign for Country & Western, and Country & Western became very popular. The '68 campaign for C & W of Inelco was a very successful follow-up. Also jazz needed publicity and a special album came on the market (low-priced), so RCA-Jazz got the right attention. And during these campaigns new hits entered the Dutch Top 40. In August '68 Richard Harris reached Top 10 with his fabulous "MacArthur Park". "Two Lovely Blue Eyes" of Marius Monkau, Dutch local promising artist, almost became a big hit. Steppenwolf's "Born To Be Wild" and their LP "Steppenwolf" were a hit (Top 20) and a best-seller. "Michaela" of the local group De Domino's reached Top 20. Patty Pravo's "La Bambola", released six months before, became a real big hit and Jose Feliciano, who was to receive the Dutch Edison 1969 for his fantastic LP "Feliciano!", scored his first smasher with "Light My Fire". At the moment Jose Feliciano has a very big hit again with "Marley Purt Drive"/"Old Turkey Buzzard". Also hits for Holland were a.o.: "Ain't Got No — I Got Life" by Nina Simone, and her "To Love Somebody" and "Revolution", Shelly Plimpton's "Frank Mills". Also on the local market Inelco was successful with Conny Vink (she reached the hit-parade with "De Toeteraar"), Harry Verbeke, Ad Vanderhood, Sandor Vidak, Annette Roco, De Domino's, Marius Monkau, Lex Goudsmit (who was very successful in Anatevka, the Dutch "Fiddler On The Roof") and many others. Inelco Holland had the opportunity to welcome many famous artists and groups. Among them were first of all Mr. Arthur Rubinstein who even was three that people like us get movin'...

sometimes.

Too bad we're not infallible. We've made campaigns that flopped, for records that didn't measure up. Still we didn't catch any rockets.

Because most times we make hits. Big hits. Like Blue Cheer's "Summertime blues". Became number one on the charts after the heaviest campaign ever held for one record.

Like "Pearls Before Swine". Both albums are the best-selling underground albums in Holland.

We could give you more examples. But we don't want you to think that we're infallible after all.

Therefore, please send us your underground material and we'll send you our promotion proposal in return.

People agree with us... sometimes.

Send your material to the people that get other people movin'...:

times in Holland during the last year and Mr. Benny Goodman who was in Holland during the Holland Festival in June last year. Peggy March was very successful during her visits (she was here twice). Especially at the Dutch Grand Gala Du Disque in March '69 she was great. During this Grand Gala Du Disque for RCA Victor also were in Holland: Chet Atkins, Harry Secombe (who sings in "Oliver") and Miriam Makeba. In August '68 Charley Pride was contracted for Holland, but he had to go to a hospital with a nervous breakdown. Jefferson Airplane did Holland in September last year and had very good concerts in Amsterdam. The group "fell in love" with Holland and stayed for a week (" to enjoy Holland"). For Vanguard, Country Joe And The Fish visited our country to promote their latest LP's and, as you can understand: they succeeded! Nilsson, who was here in October made television recordings. At the moment he has many fans among the d.j.'s of Holland. Mr. Julian Bream received a Dutch classical Edison during the Grand GalaClassique '68 September. South-African group Fou Jacks and A Jill are getting popula in Holland after their visit. The television show they made has been on television for even four times! In March of this year Inelco welcomed Mrs. Mary Reeves. She was in Holland to discuss publicity and release policy about the records of her late husband, Jim Reeves, is five years after his tragic death still the best selling artist of RCA in Holland!

In May '68 Hans van Zeeland, CNR's president, came back from his business visit to the U.S.A. He acquired the distribution rights for the Moonshot, Abnak and Calla labels and for Johnny Nash's hit "Hold Me Tight". Ten months later this record appeared to be a double hit, because the flip "Cupid", also jumped into the Dutch Top ten. CNR was the lucky company to present 6 gold records to her artists in the period '68-'69. One of those "Gold-artists" is 13 year old boy-singer Heintje, "Holland's wonderboy of pop". In Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, and the Scandinavian countries Heintje broke all records with his hits: "Ich Bau Dir Ein Schloss" (I'll Build You A Castle), "Heidschi Bumbeidschi" and "Ich Sing Ein Lied Fur Dich" (I sing A Song For You). Heintje also received two times Radio Luxemburg's "gold lion" as Germany's most popular artist. He was also starring in two German movies. Whether Heintje will last as long as indestructible Gert Timmerman (Gerry Carpenter for English speaking countries) he will have to prove. Mostly with own compositions Gert and his wife Hermien are topping the bill since '63. In May of this year they received their 12th gold record in the presence of 35,000 fans. This celebration was organised in the Amsterdam Olympic Stadium. The classical market was seriously penetrated this year by a new name in the Western record world: Melodia. As you know it is the trade mark under which all Soviet Union artists record. CNR did some efforts to have their piece of the classical pudding and we might say that the slice not only was very neatly cut, it is also bigger than they expected. Dutch dealer magazine Fonografiek awarded her prize for the best campaign to Melodia. As result of this campaign over fifty Belgian and Dutch dealers went to Moscow. CNR's and Belgian's Barclay staff and the dealers visited a.o. the Melodia studio's, the Bolshoi theatre and the Kremlin. Contrary to the Moscow trip, many foreign artists visited Holland and with big results! CNR got the distribution rights of the French Barclay and Erato labels, and it was Mireille Mathieu who really opened the Dutch market for French compositions with her visit to the Amsterdam record gala last March. Mireille's singles and LP's are running wild. Other Barclay artists who visited Holland and did successful television here were Jean Christian Michel, Nicoletta, Dave, Les Enfants Terribles, Claude Reva and Jean Ferrat. A very hearty welcome in CNR's house was given to the American Buddah label. Their first release of this hot label was "Chewy Chewy" by they Ohio Express. Do you imagine a better start? And they'll never forget Buddah's Melanie. The first press-conference given in a Dutch T.V.-studio was for this fantastic girl singer. CNR is very happy that Melanie is coming back to our country in July of this year. Also German Telefunken artists visited Holland. The brass band "Ernst Mosch und seine original Egerlander Musikanten" arrived here in November and did three shows. At the same time CNR released a new album by this band: "Lieblings-melodien". In January last Norwegian girl singer Kirsti (Telefunken) was filmed for the "Pick-up" television program. This record magazine showed the singer's big hit: "Du Darfst Nicht Weinen". In May Hans van Zeeland opened the new CNR offices in the town of Leiden, Holland's oldest university city, just between Amsterdam and Rotterdam. Mr. van Zeeland reckons that the new premises will give sufficient room up till the 80's.

Artone Records in Benelux report a period of remarkable progress during which the company's concern with constant readjustment to changing market conditions has resulted in an overall increase of 30 per cent. New local LP productions which have proved very successful include packages by The Reunion Jazz Band, Louis van Dyke Trio, Ann Burton, Freddy Golden and Willy Schobben. The marketing of a special series of boxes record-sets likewise has been very well received. Following the announcement of the 1968 Edison Awards in the Popular category, Artone stood out as the top label for Pop Albums, with six awards out of eighteen being selected for product produced or distributed by the company. In the classical field, Artone further expanded their highly rated line of "Artone Classics" with new recordings by renowned Dutch artists Albert de Klerk, Hans Henkemans and Piet Kiel Jr. Several of these local productions have now been scheduled for release in the German speaking countries through the Barenreiter-Verlag in Germany. During the past season Artone further has managed to effect the complete break through of its Tamla-Motown releases in the Benelux market. Ever since The Four Tops and Gladys Knight & The Pips starred at the Grand Gala Du Disque Populaire, and Diana Ross & The Supremes did their 50-minute TV spectacular, the Tamla-Motown Sound has soared high in this territory. Album sales were doubled if not tripled, whilst artists such as Diana Ross & The Supremes, Shorty Long, Stevie Wonder, and Edwin Starr also scored in the singles picture. During the past 12 months, Artone likewise has been strong sales action on behalf of their local releases from the United Artists catalogue. Special effort was made to get local single releases supported by the artists' TV exposure, either by the showing of film-clips or by personal appearances. A policy which helped make Bobby Goldsboro, The Easybeats, The Fortunes, and Peter Sarstedt into Top Ten artists. Original Motion Picture Sound tracks were released in conjunction with the local showings of the movies and in addition sales-drives were launched on the label's Gospel (Veep) and C & W lines. Shirley Bassey's UA albums are drawing lots of attention ever since she was awarded the coveted Edison prize late last year. Another line which has been selling successfully since its introduction in this territory is the series of Solid State albums, of which the superb stereo quality has proved to be a strong selling point. Artone as distributor for Epic Records continued to do very well with their releases of Donovan material. His "Atlantis" recording became one of the company's biggest sellers in the singles field.

Editions Altona reports, that their most outstanding feature was the success of titles from "Hair"-Musical. Their local version by Zen was six weeks in the Top-Ten, after that Nina Simone's version "Ain't Got No" remained also for six weeks in the Top Ten. A big result for the exploitation of their UA Music-catalogue. Other Top Ten-entries of Altona in the past period were: "If I Only Had Time" (Je n'aurai pas le temps), a very successful version in Dutch on an American copyright entitled "Kom Uit De Bedstee", that brought a golden record, "Baby Come Back" in the version by the Equals, the Dutch original title "Prikkebeen" by Boudewijn de Groot, "Window Of My Eyes" by famous Cuby & The Blizzards and "Green Tambourine" by the Lemon Pipers. Very successful exploitations were also: "Rain And Tears" by Aphrodite's Child and "Walk Away Rence" by the Four Tops. Altogether, the past period was very satisfactory as manager Wim Van Vught informs us.

Wim Landman of UNIVERSAL SONGS HOLLAND N.V., reports a very satifactory year for the company; representing Francis-Day Muziekuitgevers N.V. for the first year turnover of Francis Day was raised with appr. 30%. Since the first of January 1969 also Trident Muziekuitgeverij N.V. is

A STATISTICAL LOOK AT SWEDEN

Area: 173,378 sq. miles (449,733 sq. kilometres)

Population: 7,773,000 inhabitants.

Record market: Sweden is an importing market, with only a limited number of its songs and records having chances at the world market. However, in recent year, it seems as export of Swedish songs and records has been growing, particularly to the other Scandinavian countries. It's a teenagers market, with single records now dominating, while only a few years ago EPs dominated the sale. Sales of LP albums has also been steadily increasing in the last two years.

Language: Local language is Swedish. A few years ago, recordings (of pop music) in Swedish was considered a waste of time and money, while English-language records did extremely well. However, the growing number of teenage pop groups who often have recorded old local standard tunes, has changed this and a good Swedish-language record today offers a very good competition to foreign-language records.

Radio & TV: Broadcasts and TV is under government control, strictly non-commercial. As far as radio programmes is concerned, the listener has three different program channels to choose among, and the long awaited second channel in TV has just started on an experimental basis. The TV P2 is expected to operate in full scale as 1970 starts. Color TV programs appear very often in Sweden by now.

A STATISTICAL LOOK AT NORWAY

Area: 124,064 sq. miles (mainland —323,917 sq. kilometres) to which is added Spitsbergen (Svalbard), a group of mountainous islands in the Arctic Ocean of 23,957 sq. miles (62,050 sq. kilometres) and some mainly uninhabited Arctic possessions.

Population: 3,700,000 inhabitants.

Record market: Norway is an importing market, now slowly shifting from mainly an adult's market to a teenager's market. According to trade people, record sales seems to have been most satisfactory. As in most countries, a growing LP sale is reported, while EPs have a limited market in Norway compared with singles.

Language: Local language is Norwegian, but foreign-language records in general and English and Swedish language records in particular have no difficulties in the competition.

Radio & TV: Broadcasts and TV are handled by non-commercial government-controlled stations.

Greetings from FELIX STAHL

the only Scandinavian composer who's songs have been recorded by international stars, such as:

Sweden: Bibi Johns. U.S.A.: Eddie Fisher, Rosemary Clooney, Percy Faith. Great Britain: Frankie Vaughan, Gracie Fields, Kim Cordell, Dave Clark Five, Jackie Trent, Johnny Tudor. Italy: Teddy Reno. France: Tino Rossi, Franck Pourcel, Caravelli. Germany: Britt Malmkjell, Ray Martin.

Swedish technique is not only what you have seen in Swedish films.

In the publishing and record field in Scandinavia it is Stig Anderson who uses it.

He takes the Scandinavians feelings and makes a hit of it.

A STATISTICAL LOOK AT FINLAND

Area: 130,165 sq. miles (337,009 sq. kilometres)

Population: 4,600,000 inhabitants.

Record market: Finland is an importing market, and also an adult's market, while it seems to becoming more and more of a teenager's market in those days. LP sales, usually of less importance, has been going up while EPs are still of less importance compared with the singles. Record sale in general went down in 1965, but has since then been steadily going up. As major problems is mentioned "too much pop music being aired over local radio stations" as well as a growing sale of tape recorders.

Language: Local language is Finnish, but great parts of the country, particularly in southern and western Finland are both Finnish and Swedish speaking territories. Recordings in Finnish are still offering strong, perhaps sometimes too strong, competition to foreign-language records. However, during the last two years more and more artists, particularly the teenage-groups, are recording also local songs in English with a good sales result.

Radio & TV: Broadcasts are non-commercial via the government controlled stations. As far as TV is concerned, a private-operated commercial station competited with the government-controlled non-commercial stations. The other year, the government station bought the private company and has since then continued operation of both stations.

represented which means that the material of the Big three is going through Vossiusstraat 52 in Amsterdam. The representation of the various publishing affiliates as Dunbar Inc. Sunbury Inc. Dunbar and Sunbury Ltd., RCA — Italiana, RCA — Spain resulted in local covers that gained important positions on our local charts and reported strong sales. Sheet- and folio sales augmented with a good 25%.

Bospel Music N.V. can look back to a successful season 1968/69, that started in the summer of 1968 with big hits like "Young Girl", "Lady Willpower", "Over You", "MacArthur Park". These songs dominated the jukeboxes during the summer and for a long time after in radio and TV-programs, which resulted in a big record- and sheetmusic sale. In the meantime Bospel Music Belgium SprL was founded and the results of this new department surpassed the expectations. The Paris establishment largely satisfied to the desired expectations. As a close co-operation and further co-ordination was realised Bospel Organization, which consists of 5 music publishers and 3 record company's, became one of the most important concerns in the Benelux-countries and France. The MIDEM festival '69 in Cannes was a very successful event for Bospel; the large stand in hotel Martinez proved to be an outstanding business-centre. The relations with business-associates were strengthened and numerous cover-versions were realised of Bospel's copyrights with a.o. Bovema (EMI), Phonogram, Telgram, Decca, Polydor etc. The first months of 1969 different copyrights of Bospel came in into the charts such as: "Ring Of Fire", "Mona Lisa", "Long Lonesome Road", "De Laatste Dans", "Big Bam-

You might need all the help that Berlitz can give you just to answer the fan mail.

Some surprising things happen when an artist records for CBS Records. With markets in nearly 100 countries, anything's possible. Like having a hit in Northern Ireland and Northern Borneo at the same time.

It's not unlikely when we say that every minute of every day throughout most of the civilized world someone is listening to a CBS Record.

With that in mind: Why couldn't it be yours?

HISTORY

AND THE COMPANY THAT MAKES IT

1922. Compo changed the history of the Canadian Recording Industry—manufacturing, distributing, promoting, selling, even recording on its own Canadian label—and never stopped. With two pressing plants, tape duplicating facilities, and further expansion planned, we are Canada's largest manufacturer —getting larger. With 6 distrib centers across Canada, Compo completely covers the Canadian markets—English, French and otherwise. Every so often our promotion team breaks an international hit—first, which proves that they're hustling—and even when they don't, our 20 salesmen are out there capitalizing. It all means that our total Canadian represenation of U.S. independents has been quite a success story. Not only that, we've had a ball doing it. Now you know all about our history. Talk to us about our future. And Yours.

JAPAN—THE PAST 12 MONTHS

The World Fair "EXPO '70" will be held in Osaka next year. This coming big event is, more or less, exciting to every industry in Japan. Along with the development of Japanese industry in Asia, the music industry is also making a remarkable advance in various points.

New Copyright Law

Since summer 1968, there are some new movements relating to the proposed revision of Copyright Law, anti- or pro-. Discussion of the bill of the new copyright law, which had been a long-pending matter, has been again shelved at the present session and carried over to the next session. The present Diet extending to June will take up the problems of Okinawa, Vietnam and other important affairs for the Government, prior to the deliberation of the said bill.

However, the revision of the Law was already discussed at the Executive Board of Liberal Democratic Party, Government Party, and the bill is only required to go through Houses of Representatives and Councilors. Approval is expected this year, at the latest in the beginning of next year. The enforcement promises an advantageous position to music copyright owners.

Remarkable Development in Music Tape Industry

Nippon Hoso (JOLF), one of the largest private broadcasting services in Tokyo, started 8-track cartridge and cassette tape with the label called Pony. Their Bunka Hoso (JOQR) is engaged in the tape business with the Apolion label. TBS, another broadcasting service, started Tomy.

Following this, major record companies also entered into the music tape industry. Remarkable development of the car industry, rise of standard of living, completion of main highways have created a new demand for car music. (con't on next page) boo", "Ragamuffin Man", "Monday To Friday" and "Never Grow Old". For this year Bospel expects to be able to attract some important funds and representations for which negotiations are already going on. In May the pubbery existed exactly 30 months (2½ years) and has been satisfying ascertained that Bospel can be ranged among the four most important music publishers in the Benelux-countries.

The BASART PUBLISHING GROUP reports continued success for all catalogues represented by them in the Dutch or Benelux territory. 100 New chart entries in the period covered by the report indicate successful promotional activity, which made way for an impressive list of publications in all forms. Song folios on the various catalogues and special arrangements for accordion, electronic organ and recorder were added to the usual piano copy publications and sales went up tremendously, quite contrarily to the present trend of decreasing interest of the public in printed music. New acquisitions of the group this year were the representation of Mike Collier's Mother Mistro Music Group, negotiations of which were started at and finished after this year's MIDEM, where the Basart Group was represented by three of its topexecs, and the catalogue of Shelby Singleton. Wonderful year again for Benelux' foremost music publishing firm.

After becoming independent of the Artone concern 3 months ago, Joop Portengen is very happy with the development of his and Holland's youngest publishing company: PANDA PRODUCTIONS, which — for instance — has a tremendous hit already in Desmond Dekker's "The Israelites". Panda, being in charge already of the exploitation in Holland of the catalogues of the World Music group, Sonet-Stockholm, Blue Jeans Music (Herman Brauer) and many Sleeping Bunny and Peter Meisel-copyrights, obtained an important series of local covers in addition to recordings of orginal copyrights. Panda's expansion requires new offices, which will be in Amsterdam, Nic. Maesstraat 41, near by the famous Concertgebouw.

Holland Music N.V. (Peer-Southern Organization) has been very successful this last year with, of course, Donovan, who was in the Hit parade for several weeks with "Atlantis" & "To Susan On The West Coast Waiting", to mention just two titles of him. Furthermore the Tom Jones/Ben Cramer success "Help Yourself"/"Dans Met Mij" and we must not forget the phenomenal success of the film song "Un Homme Et Une Femme". Moreover the new title by Herman's Hermits: "My Sentimental Friend".

Intermusic had an excellent first year. One month after establishing (June 1st '68) the company got the Benelux representation of two English publishers: Immediate Music and Morgan Music. Late followed by Active Music, Robbyland Music and R&R Music. From August '68 until May '69 the average chart-share was 11%. In the field of the so-called "Whiteblues" Intermusic became the most successful publisher in this area with titles by Fleetwood Mac, Ten Years After, Chicken Shack and the OQSCAR Benton Blues Band. The Album of the underground-musical "Agemo's Trip To Mother Earth" recorded by Group 1850 on Philips had a world-wide release. Big chart-busters were: "Albatross", "The Universal", "In The Beginning" and "Lazy Sunday". For the next year Intermusic has big expectations of Oscar Benton's Blues Band, Humble Pie, Fleetwood Mac & The Amen Corner, which all will record material controlled by the company.

Editions "Actueel", independent publishing and production firm owned by Jan Van Schalwijk, started its activities in November 1968. Up to now it is a very successful start. Beside an intensive own local production Actueel was successful in placing songs abroad. Between the start and now pubbery has managed to release about twenty local-versions of sub-titles among which "Het Saunabad" (Das Ist Zu Schon Um Wahr Zu Sein) sung by Tony Bass/Negram, "Long Long Road For The Broken Hearts" (De Man Met De Grote Trom) Irene on CNR, "Mijn Hart Zegt Ja" (Mein Herz Sagt Oui) Trix van Balen/Philips, "Its A Litte Word" Ronny Tober/Philips, and now Actueel is high on the charts with "Hinter Den Kulissen Von Paris", Mireille Mathieu/Barclay and a local version by Joyce Suma CNR. Actueel is representing for Benelux: Edition Montana (Udo Jurgens-Alexandra-Olarims-Camillo), Ed. Wiener Boheme Benelux, Altus International (copyrights from famous writer Horst Jankowsky), Ed Furioso, Ed. Literatoon, Ed. Capriole, Storm Dew Publishers Company Canada for Benelux-Germany-Austria and Switzerland.

Muziekuitgeverij J. Portengen N.V., since end January 1969 under new professional management of Frans van Tongeren, this season again showed to be a steadily growing pubbery with strong local production (a.o. Nathalie and Nina by Mo and Po, Puur, Pure Natuur by John Lamers) and with much success for sub-published material: Casatchok, the pubbery's biggest hit of the past 12 month with 4 different versions in the top-40, Son Of A Preacher Man by Dusty Springfield, Think by Aretha Franklin and The World Of Oz hits I Am A Muffin Man and King Croesus. The growth of the April and Blackwood publishing groups all over the world with a constant stream of excellent material, and contacts with other publishing houses such as Nashville-Tree, Sparta of London and Aean Kluger of Brussels have fruitful and profitable results warranting our trust in a continueing rise of activities.

JAPAN — THE PAST 12 MOS.

The following figures given by The Japanese Society of Rights of Authors and Composers (JASRAC), shows copyright royalty collected concerning uses in tape. The amount is the total of cartridge and cassette, on imported matrices and local masters.

1966	Y5,400,000	($15,000)
1967	Y77,000,000	($213,888)
1968	Y290,000,000	($805,555)

The rapid increase surprises not only tape manufacturers but all those in music concerned.

Now, major electric makers have come into the tape business. The future of the music tape field will be observed with particular attention and much interest.

Folk Song Still Favored

Universities in Japan are facing serious problems. Student organization known as Zengakuren expresses their dissatisfaction with the administration system of university and the policy of the Government. In these circumstances, folk songs of anti-war mood are specially favored by young generation.

Bob Dylan or Simon & Garfunkel's works are sung more than before. Not only folk songs of foreign origin but Japanese original songs of folk type have been successively presented. Some of them are charted. For instance, those single records as "Toki Niwa Haha No Nai Ko No Yoh Ni" (Motherless Child) on CBS/Sony, "Chiisana Nikki" (Little Diary) and "Kaze" (Winds) on Toshiba or Philips's "Kinjirareta Koi" (Unpermitted Love) and "Aisuru Hito Ni Utawase Naide" (Don't Let Me Sing for Your Lover) represent the trend.

Among many talented artists in the folk song boom, Ryoko Moriyama (Philips) has the image of 'the Goddess of Folk Song'.

Decline of Local Groups

When one speaks of the first stream of music in Japan, one can say that the Japanese popular song prevailed in the country for a long time; the second stream will be the music of imported records from America and European countries, and the third stream music of local groups, sung and produced by young Japanese. After a five year 'golden' period, local groups have lost popularity among teenagers. The main reason is troubles and changes in groups. The Tigers, which can be compared with The Beatles or The Rolling Stones, has troubles among its members. Another popular group, The Ox, has lost its top star, as has the Village Singers,

On the contrary, R & B is gaining popularity. Local works of this type have been gradually introduced. A representative one is "Goodnight Baby," a Grammophon release.

Teens in Japan are changing their interest. They pay more attention to music itself rather than to the looks or atmosphere of groups. It is said sounds completed in U.S.A. or in England will be more welcomed than local sounds.

At record shops, records of new rock and white blues are displayed in the windows. This indicates fans of this sort of music are increasing. The record industry also has already recognized that LP sales are at a new peak in Japan.

central marketing office meets the need for promotion pressings, background material and photographs etc. whilst the art and print department supply special visual aids as well we continuing responsibility for album sleeves and the typography and layout of the house magazine. In all, it has been a year of challenge which the company has met on many fronts, and made strides forward with commitments for the future. The liveliness and personal contacts of the company are still its unrivalled assets, whilst the speed and mobility of its unique nationwide delivery service have once again proved invaluable.

PHILIPS

Philips Records managing director Leslie Gould summed up the year under review as "quite a good one". The group's share of hit singles did not decrease, but overall single sales did, and classical sales showed no major increase. LP results other than classical were very good, both in the full price category and especially in the budget field where sales trebled. Philips had its best ever year in terms of exports, particularly in respect of Japan, the U.S.A. and Germany. Spearheading the overseas sales success was the Living Presence Stereo series of albums. Artistes recorded in Britain who proved highly popular abroad included Dusty Springfield, Scott Walker, Dave Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mick and Tich, Manfred Mann and Madeline Bell. The 1968 Budget which imposed 50% purchase tax on records and tapes, followed by an additional 5% in the fall, hampered progress, notably in the musicassette area. "Musicassettes have done much better than I expected in those circumstances" remarked Gould. "The machine range is becoming bigger, including some economically priced ones from Japan, and the car machines will have a good effect on sales. I anticipate that the tape market will grow to about 25% of the total". The Budget imposition that raised the price of a classical LP over the £2 mark kept that branch of the market static, and budget repertoire made further inroads. Gould voiced the injustice of such a penal level of tax on classical music and spoken word records, but pointed out that Philips is one of the few companies doing more in these spheres than five years ago. Colin Davis had started the formidable Berlioz cycle of recordings with various orchestras, and Bernard Haitink was active with the London Philharmonic Orchestra. The English Chamber Orchestra is also being recorded, and Philips makes the use of as many British orchestras as possible a major plank in its classical policy. Gould remarked on the absence of a definite pop trend during the year and instanced the variety of disks with chart ratings. He does not expect underground product to become more of a major sales influence. As far as country & western repertoire is concerned, Philips has been gratified during the year by the success of its product in this idiom which proves there is a place and appreciable market for this type of music. Philips did well in the British market with foreign artistes like Esther and Abi Ofarim, Paul Mauriat, Nana Mouskouri, Cuby and the Blizzards, and Aphrodite's Children. Gould sees the single losing still more ground in future months, but disagrees with the prediction that it will eventually become a promotion vehicle for parent LPs. Philips finds there are artistes who sell well on singles but not in album form and vice versa and Gould believes these two distinct markets will continue. Philips will continue in its confidence and support for the normal disk dealers which Gould regards as "the backbone of the

Bill To Modernize Japanese Copyright Law

The Government has recently introduced in the Diet a bill for a drastic revision of the current Law which has remained almost unchanged only with local revisions ever since its enactment in 1899. It was after the ruling Liberal-Democratic Party's policy board gave it formal approval.

The proposed amendment is intended to bring the 70-year old Law up-to-date in order to meet the requirements of the times to provide greater and more extensive protection for the rights of creative artists which have not been adequately protected in the country.

Seven years have already passed since the Ministry of Education commissioned the Copyright System Council in May, 1962 to make a thorough study of the outdated Law for a sweeping revision.

It all goes well, the revised law will be put into force as of January 1, 1970.

Actually, it is a modified version of an earlier Cabinet-approved bill, based on the recommendations of the Council resulting from four years of its studies, which the Government was not able to introduce in the Diet last year because of seriously conflicting interests among creative artists, broadcasting and film producing industries and other circles.

Among the few modifications made by the ruling conservative Party is exemption, for the time being, of ordinary coffee shops, bars, stores and other business establishments from payment of copyright royalties for the use of recorded music.

But those coffee shops which are designed exclusively for customers to listen to music, and night clubs and theaters, giving musical presentations, are not exempted.

Although the original bill called for payment of royalties for every commercial use of recorded music by all these establishments, it was modified by hard pressure of operators of about 70,000 coffee shops and numerous businesses throughout Japan, which provide recorded music in their premises.

Primary Aims

The proposed bill primarily aims at the following:

1. Extension of the post-mortem duration of copyrights from 37 years to 50 years to bring the protection period up to the international level prevailing in most West-European countries. This is in response to the long-standing demand from artistic creators and copyright owners as well as to the Government need for bringing the copyright system up to the modern international level.

2. Institution of "neighboring rights," the quasi-copyrights of singers, performers, phonograph record manufacturers and broadcasting stations. From these rights a performing artist, for example, will benefit in that anyone wishing to record his performance of a copyrighted work will have to pay some fee in addition to the conventional copyright royalty for the work.

If it is passed by the Diet, as proposed, it will represent the materialization of a considerable elevation of the standard of copyright legislation in Japan by eliminating a number of anachronistic aspects, for which creators and copyright owners both at home and abroad have long been anxiously waiting, and, further, will qualify Japan to participate in the 1948 Brussels Convention which sets the minimum post-mortem duration of copyrights at 50 years.

The debate on the bill is expected to stir up far-reaching repercussions because it greatly concerns the interests of the music, film and broadcasting industries of the nation.

In anticipation of bitter arguments over the bill in both Houses, once it is put to debate, the Government will not seek much more than enough processing of the bill for it to be retained for continued study in the next ordinary session, opening at the end of this year.

GERMANY - THE PAST 12 MONTHS

Business is healthy and a tremendous increase in sales was noted for the year 1968 in Germany. Total sales rose about 20% over the previous year and close to 125 million dollars worth of product was sold.

Total sales of 69 million records set a new record which will be hard to top in the future. In 1968 the LP sales were more in number for the first time than the small 45 RPM records. Not only pop LP's increased in popularity. Classical LP sales rose a whopping 14% to 8.2 million records for about ¼ of the total dollar volume. This is compared to a classical sale of about 10% of all product in the U. S. A. and 20% for other European countries. Low priced LP's continued to dominate sales with 14.6 million records selling for $2.50 or less sold. 14.2 million LP's sold for over the $2.50 mark. EP's and small LP's continue to diminish in importance and are dying out very quickly. The important product are the 12 inch LP's and singles. LP's are almost exclusively released in stereo here with the exception of historic recordings and re-releases of older productions. Export sales also rose considerably with 12 inch LP's export increase by over 20% over 1967. Production figures increased about 10% and the total picture shows the production of 84.7 million records, import of 2.6 million records and total sales here and exported of 85.8 million disks. Here are the statistics:

On the singles scene, 89 records made the top 10 in the last 12 months compared to 104 songs the year before. Just about half of the songs listed were German original songs as 44 German tunes made the top 10 compared to 40 foreign copyrights. 5 of the songs made the charts in 2 different versions. 53 of the records were sung in German with 35 English language songs making the grade and 1 instrumental record. As in the year before, record sales in large cities accounted for most of the English language volume with the kids all over the country favoring the foreign product. Juke boxes continued to push German language production.

Although the major labels Polydor/D. G. G., Phonogram, Teldec, Electrola and Ariola completely dominated the LP market with Dave Miller's low price product for Miller International cutting into sales, the singles hits market saw 9 distributors dividing the cake. Polydor/D. G. G. lead the way with 20 hits followed by Electrola with 16, Teldec with 14, Ariola with 11, Phonogram and CBS with 10 each, Metronome with 6, Vogue and Bellaphon each had 1 top 10er.

RECORD COMPANY OF THE YEAR:
ARIOLA CELEBRATES 10TH ANNIVERSARY

It all started 10 years ago in the small town of Gutersloh, Germany when the book publisher Bertelsmann decided to open a record division.

At first the young firm met with little success. Everything was so new and it was hard to break through the hard core of the control of the industry by the "major" labels. But the small firm was optimistic. A pressing plant under the name "Sonopress" was opened. A new record club, the first of its kind, went into action. A spoken word production of Germany's finest works went into action under the Athena label and the firm came up with a couple of single hits by Dalida and Jan & Kjeld along with Jimmy Makulis and Bobbyjaan. Oldtimers Peter Kreuder and Zarah Leander gave the firm their first LP success. That was back in 1959.

Enter Classics

In 1962, the youngster decided to go into the classical field in a big way. The Eurodisc label was formed and top stars Rudolf Schock, Margit Schramm and Robert Stolz were signed. Opera and Operetta production started with top stars such as Erika Koeth, Ingeborg Hallstein, Renate Holm, Christa Ludwig, Mirella Freni, Hildegard Hillebrecht, Hertha Toepper, Wilma Lipp, Hilde Gueden, Fritz Wunderlich, Walter Berry, Kurt Boehme, Gottlob Frick, Waldemar Ementt, Eberhard Waechter, Jess Thomas, Otto Wiener, Hans Hopf and Benno Kusche added to the repertoire.

1964 saw Ariola move its music production department to Munich under the direction of Egmont Lueftner. A year later, the firm took over the Soviet classical line Melodia. This gave the young record manufacturer a strong classical product equal to the best in Germany and that's saying something.

Starting late in 1965, Ariola began to come into its own on the pop wave. In the summer of 1965, a contract was signed with Peter and Thomas Meisel's "Hansa" label for distribution and the result was a 1.5 million seller with "Il Silenzio" by Nini Rosso. Hansa artists such as The Troggs, Marion, Gaby Berger, Giorgio, Leapy Lee and Ricky Shayne strengthened the line. In the fall of the same year, the first major artist aquisition was made. None other than Peter Alexander, the top singles and LP artist in Germany was added to the labels list of exclusive artists. The list of stars increased. Early in 1966, Rex Gildo, top teen star, joined the firm and later that year, contact with Hans R. Beierlein's Montana productions brought international favorite Udo Juergens to the label. 1967 saw Ed Kassner's President label give Ariola a smash beat sound with "The Equals" and in the summer of 1967, Liberty which later brought United Artists to the firm gave Ariola-Eurodisc a top U.S. hit production with stars like The Fifth Dimension, Peter Sarstedt, Canned Heat, Shirley Bassey, Vikky Carr, Bobby Goldsboro, Vic Dana and The Spencer Davis Group.

Enter Heintje

The winter of 1967 saw something wonderful happen. Producer Wolfgang Roloff brought a youngster by the name of Heintje to the firm and the sub-teen star shattered all existing sales records in this country with over 2.75 million LP's and 4.15 million singles sold in a 18 month period by the kid from Holland. 1968 saw one more world star sign an exclusive pact with the label as Mireille Mathieu from France pacted for this area with Ariola. Other stars such as Jo Ment and his Orchestra, Renate & Werner Leismann, Fred Bertelsmann, Petra Pascal and folk music in the hands of Margit Sponheimer, Ernst Neger and Toni Haemmerle enriched the list of Ariola artists.

The careful planning paid off. Sales for the firm increase no less than 150% in 1968 over 1967 and Ariola-Eurodisc took over the 2nd position in the German record industry. One problem was left. How do you build up a world business from a small town? The answer was obvious. Move to a big city and move they did.

Recently Ariola-Eurodisc made the big trek to a 50 room complex containing advertising, promotion, press, public relations, export and import and the Eurodisc production. The new headquarters are located in Munich-Bogenhausen about 10 minutes from the middle of the city and about 8 minutes from the airport. Parking space for the staff and visitors is taken care of and the new modern central for the firm looks like a real winner.

10 years for a major record company is a very short time, but Ariola-Eurodisc has made time and effort pay off. Congratulations to the record firm of the year, Ariola-Eurodisc.

business". Specialist shops will always be patronized attracting their own clientele and a large share of the market, and racking can only prosper in areas where this specialist service is not provided.

CBS RECORDS

Ken Glancy, Managing Director of CBS Records, reports that during the past twelve months the company continued to achieve increased penetration in both the classical and popular markets with the company now commanding a share of the British market of approximately twelve-per-cent. In the 'pop' field major artist acquisitions have included Salena Jones, Elaine Delmar, Alan Haven, Maynard Ferguson and producer/arranger Keith Mansfield. CBS chart successes in the singles field over the past twelve months have been particularly impressive. The company have scored with Georgie Fame's Bonnie & Clyde; Fleetwood Mac's Albatross; O.C. Smith's Son Of Hickory Holler's Tramp; Cupid's Inspiration's Yesterday Has Gone; Sly and The Family Stone's Dance To The Music; The Gun's Race With The Devil; The Bandwagon's Breakin' Down The Walls Of Heartache; The Tymes' People; Marmalade's Lovin' Things, Ob-La-Di Ob-La-Da; The Tremeloes' My Little Lady and Hello World; The Love Affair's Rainbow Valley, Day Without Love, and One Road; Gary Puckett and The Union Gap's Young Girl, Lady Willpower and Over You. The CBS Rock Machine Campaign promoting the company's contemporary music catalogue was launched initially last August and was reactivated with a second phrase during February this year. Two budget priced sampler albums reaped substantial sales themselves in addition to assisting in activating product released in the campaign. Simon & Garfunkel's "Graduate" soundtrack album appeared consistently in the LP charts and firmly established the artists in this country. Their entire catalogue repertoire has featured regularly in the album charts, and an EP drawn from The Graduate album has sold over 100,000 copies to date. CBS also instigated the first-ever dealer/consumer participation competition in Britain in the autumn with "Make A Cheque" and "Spot The Star." These proved unqualified successes with both dealers and the record buying public. Among the classical highlights of the year were the launching of a new mid-price series of CBS Classics which was eagerly welcomed by record dealers. The autumn visit of Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic was linked with a remarkably successful promotion of the artist's recording of the Berlioz's Symphonie Fantastique at a special sampler price. The appointment of Pierre Boulez as chief conductor of the BBC Symphony has provided a substantial impetus to the sales of this CBS artist's recordings. Visiting CBS artists

GERMANY — THE PAST 12 MONTHS

Top events of the last 12 months were as follows:

Peter Meisel of Hansa Records and Teldec Records presented the first golden record to Manuela for the sale of over 4 million records during her career. Heinz Lukas joined Liberty Records as head of the promotion division. The record industry cancelled its contract with GEMA due to a fight over royalty rates. The fight has still not been settled. Sales of record changers increased 20% to 1.2 million while record players dropped 30% to 400,000. The tape recorder still leads the list of total sales for all reproduction instruments and the new Cassette business is developing well.

14,336,379 TV sets were registered in Germany for the start of the year. AFN, the American Forces Network celebrated their 25th anniversary with a big fete in Frankfurt. Caterina Valente headlined the big show. Bert Kaempfert took 5 awards at the BMI presentations to tie with Holland-Dozier-Holland for the most awards given. The death of Polydor's press chief Klaus Reimann shocked the industry. Germany's first teenage fair was planned for Duesseldorf in August. Siw Malmkvist of Metronome walked away with the German Pop Music Festival. Her "Harlekin" racked up top sales as did records from the festival by Dorthe on Philips and France Gall on Teldec, the 2nd and 3rd place winners. The Meisel brothers Intro Music picked up the gravy as all three songs were published by that house.

Wolfgang Kretschmar took over artistic direction of Phonogram-Ton with Dr. Hans-Gerhard Lichthorn as Pop Product Manager, Hans-Karl Gross as Classical Product Manager and Fritz Koehler joined the firm as head of the promotion department.

Producer Werner Schmid headed up the list of musical producers with his German presentations of "Fiddler on the roof" and "Hair". Both were smash successes. Germany' finished second in the Knokke, Belgium festival with Belgium winning the event. Fontana Records Johnny Tame took 3rd place for Germany in the Malta Pop Music Festival. A new pop music and show business paper called "Sing-Sing" hit the stands.

Larry Yaskiel took over as head of D.G.G./Polydor's Antenna Promotions. Werner Mueller took his WDR Dance Orchestra on a tour of Japan. Metronome's boss Leif Kraul celebrated his 40th birthday. Radio Luxemburg awarded their prizes for the first ½ of 1968 to Peter Alexander and Heintje for Golden Lions, Manuela for a silver Lion and Dorthe picked up a Bronze award. The German Record Industry sponsored the first "Gala Evening of Classical Records" with top stars and the event was covered by TV fully. RCA's Peggy March picked up a golden record for 3 million total sales. CBS Press Chief Herbert Mueller left the firm for a new post at Teldec. August Seith, head of Chappell-Seith music publishing celebrated his 65th birthday. Young publisher Eckhart Rahn picked up representation of the Immediate catalog for Germany. D.G.G. celebrated their 70th birthday. The firm took over the A&M and Chess-Checker catalogs for Germany. Teldec celebrated the 10th anniversary of Warner Bros.-Reprise-Seven Arts. Ralph Maria Siegel celebrated his 20th anniversary as a publisher. Sales from records included in the German Pop Music Festival passed the million mark in sales. Ariola signed a long term pact with Mireille Mathieu. Rudy Slezak celebrated his first year as an indie publisher. "Those were the days" became the song of the year for Hans Gerig Music as sales mounted up. Udo Jurgens local tour broke records as 125,000 paying customers visited the concerts. Journalist Dieter Broer took over as press chief of Phonogram. James Last picked up 2 golden records for his LP's "Hammond A Gogo" and "Trumpet a Gogo". Ariola awarded 10 golden disks to Heintje for tremendous sales. The young star sold 1,250 copies of his first LP and his Xmas LP passed the 750,000 mark and his 2 singles both passed the million mark in sales. For the 8th time Dr. Hans Gerig awarded the prize for youth and school music compositions. Caterina Valente celebrated her 15th year in show business. The German Pop Music Festival was set for Weisbaden on July 3rd. "Song for Europe" Eurovision contest entry for Germany was Siw Malmkvist from Metronome. Austria did not enter and Switzerland picked up 2nd place in the event. Teldec's managing director Hans Lieber celebrated his 70th birthday. MIDEM saw more German firms than ever represented by offices at the event. AME Music with Barbara Kist, Ariola-Eurodisc with Monty Luftner, and many others, Bellaphon Records, Capriccio Music, Chappell & Co., Cornet Records, Global Music with Peter Kirsten, Hans Gerig Music, Interrecord, Intersong publishing, MDW publishing, Rolf Budde Music, Walt Disney Music, RCA, and many others were on hand for the event with their own offices. The German industry had its Pop Gala in Berlin with an all star line up including Miriam Makeba, Mireille Mathieu, Rita Pavone, Dusty Springfield, Silvie Vartan, Nina and Frederich, Adamo, Richard Anthony, Dalida, Mantovani, and Shmuel Rodensky as well as Karel Gott were the international attractions, along with Ray Conniff, Esther & Abi Ofarim picked up a gold disc for their album "2 in 3". French Vogue took over control of their German namesake. Phonogram signed Francoise Hardy. Intro publishing had a big English hit with Sandie Shaw's Monsieur Dupont". Dr. Herfried Kier celebrated his 10th anniversary as press chief of Electrola. Ariola moved its quarters to Munich. The event was celebrated with a huge fete with Ariola's top stars performing for the 500 "elite" guests from the Music industry. Francis Day & Hunter celebrated the success of "Happy Heart" internationally written by James Last. German stars Udo Jurgens and Roy Black finished 3rd and 14th recently in a poll of teens as the most popular youth idols. New heads of the German Record Industry organization are Leif Kraul of Metronome and Wilfried Jung of Electrola with Oskar Drechsler of Polydor and Dr. Paetzig of Teldec also on the board. Business manager is Joachim Viedebantt. Former head Guenther Braeunlich refused renomination for the post and will devote his entire time to his press-public relations post at Teldec. It was an exciting year, all in all. More and more festivals, plus more and more special promotions. The LP industry is tops and singles are moving well. What more can you ask for? The next 12 months should be just as exciting and Cash Box will be on hand to give a weekly report on all that's news in the music business in this part of the world.

POLYDOR

The year 1968 saw Polydor Records, London, entering a new phase of its development as a major record company on the U.K. market. While 1967 can be typified as a year of explosive growth, 1968 is described best as a year of consolidation of the gains achieved while steady growth was maintained. In the field of product development Polydor maintained a marketing dominated approach whereby as far as is possible in this industry, product is created for the market rather than vice versa. Traditional dominance in the middle-of-the-road market was maintained: sales of James Last albums, in particutar, continued to increase in 1968, while at the same time new orchestras such as those of Kai Warner, Roberto Delgado and the London Symphonic Band were developed. Pop product continued to emphasize the 'Heavy' end of the market, led by Cream, The Who and Jimi Hendrix. New licences for Third Party Product included those for Buddah-Kama Sutra, Riverside, MPS, SGC and Tetragrammaton. Growth of other licensed product continues to be excellent. On Elektra the greatest success was the breaking of the Doors as a major pop act in the U.K., while Atlantic sales continued to expand, crowned by a major promotion in April 1969 which also launched the Atco label under its own logo in the U.K. New acts developed by the company in the past year include the Crazy World of Arthur Brown, Julie Driscoll, Brian Auger and The Trinity, The Marbles, Led Zeppelin, Taste, Raymond Froggatt, Jeannie C. Riley and John Bromley, which together with established acts such as The Bee Gees, The Incredible String Band, Otis Redding, Aretha Franklin, Sam & Dave and others mentioned earlier, accounts for the very rapid increase in our income from licensing and exports. Polydor attach great importance to specialist product of all kinds. They pride themselves on the wide range of blues, jazz and folk material, released profitably. They also show great concern for the packaging of their LP product.

LIBERTY/UA

A merger, chart sounds, exciting new artist signings, new label launchings, increased sales of catalogue, expansion etc., are just a few things that made up the hectic but rewarding year for Liberty/UA. Early in 1968 the Transamerica Corporation acquired Liberty Records and plans were already advanced for bringing the two previously rival and independent record companies into peaceful co-existence in Great Britain. Alvin Bennett, President of the new company, appointed Noel Rogers as head of European operations. Martin Davis was made General Manager. At the beginning of 1969 Liberty/UA moved into luxurious new offices at the Mortimer Street headquarters and the final staff appointments were announced. With the policy of expansion and determination to succeed with local product, Bennett named Noel Walker as head of A & R. Walker formally head of A & R for the Decca label had a string of hits behind him, including The Fortunes, Amen Corner, The Batchelors and many more. For the United Artists label it was the first full year of independence, and it was certainly a notable one. Among the chart entries were those from The Easybeats with "Hello How Are You"; Bobby Goldsboro with "Honey"; Leroy Holmes "The Good, The Bad & The Ugly"; Inez and Charlie Foxx with the re-release of "Mockingbird"; and then every record company's dream . . . a number one with Peter Sarstedt's "Where Do You Go To My Lovely". Successful albums over the year included "The Good, The Bad & The Ugly"; Chitty Chitty Bang Bang; "Hang 'Em High"; "The Thomas Crown Affair"; "The Big Gundown"; plus albums from Gordon Lightfoot, Shirley Bassey, The Easybeats, Spencer Davis Group and Inez & Charlie Foxx. There was continuing success of the Bond albums, "A Man & A Woman", "Live For Live", "Return of the Seven", and "In the Heat of the Night". The Solid State series was also launched with such artists as Thad Jones and Mel Lewis, Dizzy Gillespie, Jimmy McGriff, John Coltrane and many other Jazz greats, Liberty's year has been equally successful. In May the Canned Heat album "Boogie With Canned Heat" and their single "On The Road Again" were released. Boogie album made Top 5 in the album charts, the single made Top Ten. Liberty made big inroads into the blues and progressive markets signing the Aynsley Dunbar Retaliation, and The Groundhogs during 1968. Christmas 1968 saw the Bonzo Dog Doo Dah Band in the Top 5 for the first time with their 250,000 selling single "I'm The Urban Spaceman". Continuing its policy of looking for progressive rock and blues musicians Liberty released new albums by the Ian Anderson Country Blues Band Captain Beefheart & His Magic Band, Roy Harper and Andy Fernbach. So far in 1969 Liberty has been represented in the charts by Vikki Carr "With Pen In Hand", Canned Heat, "Going Up The Country", and the Fifth Dimension "Aquarius/Let the Sunshine in". Also Liberty has completed two US licensing deals with West Coast labels. Fantasy — including product by Creedence Clearwater Revival and Charlie Mingus and Vault Records with product from the Chambers Brothers and the Floating Bridge. The recent signing of Ike & Tina Turner

to the Minit Label is indicative of the steady growth this label has achieved during the year with numerous releases by Ike & Tina Turner, Homer Banks, Bobby Womack amongst others and Minit should soon establish itself as a leading contender in the R & B and Soul Market in this country.

Liberty launched its Sunset Budget line in September 1968, and there are now over 40 albums available in this catalogue. With sales continuing to steadily increase a major expansion is planned for the autumn of this year. This year marked the anniversary of Blue Note Records, another subsidiary of Liberty/UA. An expansion of the label is planned and the distribution is likely to be enlarged during the coming months as a result of increasing demand for this product.

MGM/VERVE RECORDS

MGM/Verve repertoire manager John Snell planted the company's flag prominently on the year's recording map by the introduction of the Verve series of double albums called VSP — very special product at a very special price.

The price is 37 shillings and sixpence per double album, and the product features great jazz and popular music names such as Louis Armstrong, Ella Fitzgerald, Stan Getz, Gene Krupa, and the Count Basie Orchestra.

MGM/Verve scored a first in July 1968 via Snell's programming an entire Latin American month with a package of eight albums that won extensive radio and press coverage with artists like Luiz Bonfa, Walter Wanderley, Marcos Valle, and Digno Garcia.

In February 1969 MGM went underground with its Plastic Dream package with LPs by progressive artists such as The Mothers of Investion, Tim Hardin, Richie Havens, and a new British underground act called Caravan.

MGM Records' biggest British-initiated success of the year was "Eloise" by Barry Ryan, which blossomed into a huge million-plus international hit, and collected a gold disk award for the label.

MCA RECORDS

Country and western music played a major role for the infant MCA Records during the year under review. It mounted its Country Music Drive with an 11-album release, boosted by promotional gimmicks such as provincial deliveries by "cowboys" and ballroom promotions that broke existing attendance records.

MCA also continued its rock revival started earlier with Bill Haley repertoire. Rock disks by The Crickets, Brenda Lee and others were reissued, plus a rich batch of Buddy Holly recordings.

The label signed Topol, Neil Diamond, Sacha Distel and Troy Dante, and scored multi-million world sales success with Leapy Lee's "Little Arrows." It broke new British ground by releasing a complete "Man Of La Mancha" cast recording, including the dialogue.

MCA was the top independent label for 1968 singles sales — an appropriate prelude to the celebration of its first birthday.

RCA RECORDS

The year under review marked RCA Records' steady progress towards complete independence in the British disk market. The building of the factory at Washington, County Durham, and the organisation of a country-wide sales service continued towards fruition, and there was internal restructuring of the executive team at RCA House in Curzon Street, London, in preparation for complete solo working this summer.

Chartwise RCA broke Nina Simone and Jose Feliciano in a big way into the local market with "Ain't Got No — I Got Life" (with sales in excess of 300,000) and "Light My Fire" respectively. Hugo Montenegro also scored a mammoth success with "The Good, The Bad And The Ugly."

In terms of local talent, RCA scored hits with "Move In A Little Closer, Baby" by Harmony Grass and "Come Back And Shake Me" by Clodagh Rodgers.

In the album stakes, the label launched a massive promotion campaign on the soundtrack LP from the movie version of Lionel Bart's "Oliver!", and the phenomenal "Sound Of Music" soundtrack album passed a United Kingdom sales mark of two million.

BLUE HORIZON

The year has seen quite a few changes for Blue Horizon. They set up their own office, parted from the Fleetwood Mac and scored a hit with the Chicken Shack. Mike Vernon plans to spend six months of the year in the States and appoint independent A & R producers for British talent. Brother Richard looks after policy administration and publicity. Their publishing outlet Uncle Doris Music, under the direction of Sandy Roberton, has signed publishing deal with the independent Head Record Co.

DENKER RECORDS

During the year Morgan Records became Denker Music as Carl Denker amicably parted company with Barry Morgan and Monty Babson. Under his new set-up, Denker is operating Morgan Records as a subsidiary specialising in middle-of-the-road product and expensive classics and another subsidiary called Gemini which handles an overall repertoire including pop singles and underground material and more esoteric offerings like the Organ of St. Paul's Cathedral.

There are international deals in operating with Mercury for the States and Canada, Vega for France and Metronome for Germany, Iceland and Scandinavia whereby these companies have first refusal on Denker-Morgan repertoire for their territories.

Good album sellers for the year were the "Hawaiian Holiday" double pack by The Malahinis, "Mr. Sam Two" by Duncan Lamont, and LPs of strict tempo dance music.

IMMEDIATE

Small Faces "Lazy Sunday" topped charts throughout the world, and their second album "Ogdens Nut Gone Flake" created an unequalled merchandising concept resulting in a sales sensation. Immediate stayed in the charts with singles from P.P. Arnold Chris Farlowe, The Nice and Small Faces, and in December "Ars Longa Vita Brevis" began to fulfill throughout the world the predictions for The Nice. Amen Corner joined Immediate in January and "Half As Nice" sold over a quarter of a million copies in the U.K. alone. In March a removal was made to new premises and a New York office was established.

MAJOR MINOR RECORDS

Major Minor Records continued to live up to the meaning of its name by registering strongly amongst the smaller disk operations.

In the single field the label prospered with hits like "Mony Mony" by Tommy James and The Shondells, "May I Have The Next Dream With You" by Malcolm Roberts, and the instrumental smash "Soul Coaxing" by Raymond Lefevre and his orchestra.

FRANCE - THE PAST 12 MONTHS

Before talking of the twelve past months, one must remember the dramatic strikes which paralysed France during May 1968. As in every industry, the record business stopped production during one month. No recording sessions, no distribution. It was a month lost, but when the strikes ended record manufacturers were still anxious because they thought the French people had not enough money to buy records. The surprise came very soon. In June the sales were better than ever. The reason was the strike of TV (there is no private channel in France). The French found again the pleasure of listening to records and kept up this habit.

To understand better the sales statistics published by the Centre d'Information et de Documentation de Disque (Industry turnover for 1968 has not been publised yet), we indicate here the number of records sold in 1968 by record companies affiliated to the S.N.I.C.O.P. (Syndicat National de l'Industrie et du Commerce Phonographique) and three others.

Type of records	1967	1968
33 rpm (17 and 18,5 cm)	2,638,558	363,644
33 rpm (25 cm)	1,203,548	6,080,004
33 rpm (30 cm)	11,244,830	14,147,352
45 rpm (singles)	9,562,536	17,425,526
45 rpm (E.P.)	21,944,906	15,780,842
	324,591	111,136
	46,018,969	53,908,504

The most interesting figures are the increase of 33 rpm. More than 5 million were sold by Odege, the record company of Hachette, through a new collection "Les Grands Musiciens," which is sold by newsdealers. The national complete figures are 10% higher because of many small companies recording folk or sacred music and giving no information to the C.I.D.D.

The May events also stopped the big promotion, announced by Philips for the first days of May, of the tape player "Cassetophone," and four song cartridges market in France, where the sales reached during the 1968 three last months 302,842 cartridges, the bigger part being of the Philips type. But the Philips' decision to open the first cartridge shop on the Champs Elysees was premature and the shop had to close two months later.

Concerning records, six weeks after the social crisis, the Philips record company had rapidly regained its stride. Sales were fantastic. For example Philips, whose production had been geared for 35,000 records a day, had had to step up the 110,000 figure each day during July. The situation being good in the country French presidents took the oportunity to leave Paris and conclude business deals in other countries. Eddie Barclay jet to Las Vegas, Los Angeles and New York. Leon Cabat, Vogue Prexy, before jetting to Hawaii to attend the Warner Bros. convention, announced the creation of two new Vogue branches in Italy and Netherlands. Jacques Souplet, head of CBS France, signed a distributing and licensing deal with Czechoslovakian record company Supraphon for France and former French Africa.

In July too, Henri Marchal, who manages Sunny Music, finalized contracts with British publishing company Filmusic which gives him exclusive rights of this catalog for France. Henri Marchal also became the representative of Medalion Music. EMI artist Salvatore Adamo created his own publishing company, AA Music, which is in the Nouvelles Editions Eddie Barclay offices. Jack Robinson, who manages Criterion Music, announced the creation of a new publishing company, Mandy Music, which is part of Criterion Music and/the recording studio C.B.E. . . First composer taking under contract was Gil Marchal who released through the AZ label his first single with two Mandy Music copyrights.

Jacques Souplet renewed Joe Dassin for a long-term-world-wide contract at the moment when Joe's audience was quickly expanding. Since that time all the Joe's recordings reached the top places of the chart.

During summertime the bigger sales increase concerned LP albums, but the traditional battle for the Song of the Summer happened as during the previous summers. The winner was Aphrodite's Child first recording "Rain and Tears." This Greek trio, singing in English, cut their record in Paris for Philips label. The other greatest sales of the Summer were the Peter Holm's "Monia" (Riviera), the Equals' "Baby Come Back" (Fontana), the Sheila's "Petite Fille De Francais Moyen" (Carrere), the Joe Dassin's "Siffler Sur La Colline" (CBS) and the Canned Heat's "On The Road Again" (Liberty).

The C.I.D.D. (Centre d'Information et de Documentation du Disque) has just published the gross dollar (franc) volume for the Record Industry for 1968. The figures report gross sales in France, (duty saved) for the SNICOP 36 companies and three more. It is
1968: 257,919,137 FF
1967: 230,131,720 FF
This represents an increase of 12.7% between 1967 and 1968.

45 Increase

The great event in France at the beginning of October was the increase of the price of the 45 singles. For almost all labels this increase corresponds to 30 centimes on the price of the retail sales of the records. Only one big label has not followed suit, CBS, and to show clearly their position, Jacques Souplet, General Manager of CBS France, gave a party on the 26th of September for the artists and journalists celebrating the death of the 45 EP in France. Jacques Souplet has been fighting for three years to impose singles in France. During the party he revealed the following results to prove he was right:

CBS sales for the first quarter of 1968 were 4.19% higher that those of the same period in 1967, and 14.33% higher compared to the first quarter of 1966. For the period extending from the 1st January to the 31st August 1968 the sales have increased by 25 to 30% compared to 1967. This was a very interesting statistic for it showed well how the sales jumped up during June, July and August 1968. Souplet also said that CBS France registered, during those months, an increase of 690% on the singles sales compared to the same period in the previous year, a fall of 70% for the EP sales and an increase of 69% for the LP albums.

These results are surely a success for Jacques Souplet but the general sales we presented above do not allow us to confirm this policy is good for all industry.

Hits — Russian Style

After the great success of Mary Hopkin's "Those Were the Days", Russian style melodies took France by storm. Through CBS label Yvan Rebroff fast became a top selling artist. RCA artist Sylvie Vartan made a hit with "La Maritza", a new song recalling her Bulgarian memories. Few days after the release of that song famous French composer Joseph Kosma laid a charge against Jean Renard, composer of "La Maritza" for plagiarism of "Les Feuilles Mortes" ("The Autumn leaves"). Also inspired by Russian Music, a new dance "The Casatchok" was launched by producer and publisher Jean Kluger, through Philips label. Danced for the first time in the famous Francois Patrice's night club "Le Saint Hilaire" during a promoting night organised by Philips, the Casatchok was an immediate and tremendous success. Two recordings were a great success with Casatchok: the Dimitri Dourakine's one as instrumental and the French treatment sung by Israelian born songstress Rika Zarai.

Records sales being better, several producers started again and took under contract many new talents. In November various new contracts were signed, for example, by Eddie Barclay, prexy of Barclay records. The artists signed were Jacques Deschaux, Anne Christie, Balthazar, Glenmor, J. P. Coustillas and Gerard Auber.

Enrico Macias, who is cut by Pathe, returned to Paris on the 2nd of December, after touring the U.S. The success of this singer-composer (born in North Africa) has gone beyond the hopes of his managers. Gilbert Becaud, who records through his own label Dimensions, was, at the same time, back in town after a long tour in Canada. In Paris he immediately recorded a new album under the direction of Jacques Poisson. Poisson is now, since May last, the manager of A&R and Production departments of Essex in Paris.

During past season CED (La Compagnie Europeene du Disque) and Barclay worked very hard on their Rhythm and Blues catalog. Before Christmas Bernard de Bosson, who manages international department of the both companies, made a special effort to promote the records of the labels he represents in France. CED released two albums, Chess and Atco, with various artists. Barclay published the two volumes of "Electric Lady Land" by the Jimi Hendrix Experience. But the greater success was for the Vol. 6 and Vol. 7 of the "Rhythm and Blues Formidable" series which groups the best artists presented under the Atlantic label. At the same time Pathe Marconi launched a considerable campaign for Tamla-Motown. The same day four LPs were launched on the market: 4 Tops, Diana Ross and the Supremes, The Temptations, Junior Walker.

During November Leo Missir, Riviera Managing director, went to London to set up the organization of Nicoletta's international promotion with Philip Solomon's team. This is one example of the many successes Leo Missir has for one year. His small company, which is in the Barclay group, brought out two great newcomers: Peter Holm, who sold nearly a half million copies of "Monia" and Peter Alexandre Winter who reached first place on the charts with his first song "Oh Lady Mary." Missir is also the producer of clarinetist Jean Christian Michel playing sacred music and selling around 100,000 copies of each of his LP albums.

Francis Blanche, the French famous comedian, has created his own record company "Macheprot." First singer recording for Macheprot was Pierre Dudan. Polydor Records which has now a new president, Jack Kerner, had quite a good season. For some time this company had not possessed an artist who had reached the top of the chart. They got two this season. Serge Reggiani, who sold 250,000 albums and composer Georges Moustaki who suddenly, after a fifteen year career without success as singer, was No. 1 of the chart on May last with his song "Le Meteque." (Continental publishing)

In December, Jacques Brel was the man of the month with the success of the musical "L'Homme de la Mancha" at the Theatre des Champs Elysees.

At this occasion Barclay recorded a special album of the play by Jacques Brel, Joan Diener, Armand Mestral, etc. At the same time Polydor artist Isabelle Aubret released an EP with four songs from "l'Homme de la Mancha."

Midem

January was, of course, the month of MIDEM. Bernard Chevry, in spite of the opposition of the most part of French Records companies, obtained a great success. The shows were really better than last year with participation of Maurice Chevalier, Bobby Goldsboro, Gilbert Becaud, Mary Hopkin, Amalia Rodriguez, The Fifth Dimension, Adriano Celentano, Sergio Mendes, Joe Tex, Mireille Mathieu. Adamo . . . The TV direction of the galas was given to Walter Ulrich, Alexandre Tarta, Georges Folgoas.

An association of French Independent Phonographic producers was created during the MIDEM week in Cannes. The Members of new SPPI (Syndicat des Producteurs Phonographiques Independants) organized immediately a Press Conference to explain their point of view. They consider that independent producers represent 62% of the production of singing stars. They produce Mireille Mathieu, France Gall, Henri Salvador, Sheila, Claude Francois, Gilbert Becaud, Richard Anthony, Brigitte Bardot, Sacha Distel . . . They also represent 80% of the new artists and 90% of movie soundtracks.

They also estimate that right now independent production is almost alone responsible in the variety record field. Jacques Canetti was elected President of the SPPI. We must say that, five months after, several independent producers do not approve the SPPI.

If the French record companies did not take offices at MIDEM (except the three companies managed by president Andre Jeanneret) all their presidents were present in Cannes. Eddie Barclay set his office on a yacht in front of the Martinez and Jacques Souplet (CBS) was receiving his visitors in his room at the Carlton Hotel. It now seems that quite all French record companies will be at the MIDEM next January.

Independent producer Norbert Saada signed, during MIDEM, a distributing contract for his own label "La Compagnie" with most countries. A great french songstress joined his team during MIDEM: France Gall.

In February first days Leon Cabat, Vogue prexy, named Guy Kavessian as General Manager of Vogue Germany. Philips artist Frida Boccara was chosen as French representative at the Eurovision song contest in Madrid. The song was "Un Jour, Un Enfant" from Emil Stern (NFC Music publishing). Frida was among the four winners of the contest. Polydor launched a new 45 RPM D.G.G. collection. This is done to promote classical music. First releases were "Frederic Chopin" by Tamas Vasary, Beethoven's "Sonate au Clair de Lune," Smetana's "La Moldau" and Rodrigo's "Le concerto d'Aranjuez." Bad surprise on Feb. last for the Parisian rhythm and blues fans. Wilson Pickett who was booked for two shows at the Olympia, jetted out of town the day before the concerts. The reason seemed to be a clash between Pickett and his musicians. On the contrary TV producers Claude Fleouter and Christophe Izard took the opportunity of the Joe Tex's participation in the MIDEM galas for filming Joe at the Akou Akou club and for presenting the show in March of French TV. Few weeks after the tremendous start of the "Casatschok," CBS launched the "Rock Steady" a combination of rick and calypso type of rhythm. Presented first in the Regine's night club "New Jimmy's" that dance is strongly promoted by demonstrations organized by CBS in the all main night clubs of France.

Roger Marouani, who was for several years A&R of Festival records left this company in March and was hired by Philips. Philippe Boutet, general manager of April Music, went to Athens where he made a contract for several songs written by Mikis Theodorakis. Some of these songs are used as background music for Costa Gravas new motion picture "Z." This film, which received the Prize of the Jury in last Cannes festival, is the transcription of events which happened in 1957. Theodorakis was put in jail during this period and he has not yet been set free. Jack Kerner, Polydor France prexy, was visited by Mr. Salvini of Italian firm Ricordi. They conceluded a deal for the distribution of Ricordi label in France.

The Academie Charles Cros awarded in March its annual Grands Prix. Here are the most interesting prizes of the palmares. Consacration: Michel Polnareff (AZ), Male singer: Serge Lama (Philips), Michel Delpech (Barclay), Female singer: Frida Boccara (Philips), First Record: Miriam Anissimov (Polydor), Revelation: Julien Clerc (EMI) Humor: Pierre Perret (Vogue).

President Andre Jeanneret, who has managed for two years three companies (RCA, Decca and Vega) released in March the figures concerning his two main companies. The RCA turnover for 1968 was 85% over 67. The Decca turnover for 1968 shows an increase of 32% compared with 1967. Jacques Souplet, CBS France president, and Christian Deffes created a new independent promotion office called Conquistador. They want to assume the special promotion operations of record companies since they feel that the promotion department of these companies are organized for current problems but are not strong enough when a special promotion is decided upon for an artist. Conquistador also works on launching motion pictures.

Louis Hazan, general manager of Philips, left for a two week visit in Canada and the States to prepare the Paul Mauriat's extensive tour. During his American stay, Hazan met people of Philips USA and Mercury and saw the shows given by Johnny Hallyday and Enrico Macias in Canada and by Nana Mouskouri in Carnegie Hall. Jack Robinson, of Criterion Music Corporation in Paris, announced in March the signature of a world-wide record between Criterion Productions and Polydor International for the release of Memphis singer-songwriter Gary Joe Cooper.

ITALY - THE PAST 12 MONTHS

THE RECORD MARKET IN ITALY

Once again opening the survey for the 27th edition of the Cash Box Directory, we find ourselves facing the problem of realistic figures concerning the Italian market. As reported in surveys in the past editions of the directory, for different reasons, all directly connected with Italy's fiscal system, it is difficult to get definitive data concerning Italian production and sales for the past 12 months.

The only official data stem from SEDRIM (a society which collects in Italy mechanical rights), but since SEDRIM does not control the entire recorded repertoire, and since some sales escape appropriate control, the data is a rough estimate, and should be increased from 15 to 20% in order to approach the real figures concerning Italian record market.

This percentage of increase on the data delivered by SEDRIM has been deduced by Cash Box considering the dynamic of the market in the past twelve months period, and confronting in some cases the data delivered directly by the record industry with those received from SEDRIM.

Even if this percentage of increase is derived in this manner it does not change in a substantial way the general outlook of the Italian market, as given by this report. It is interesting to note that the data published in last year's issue are corresponding to data concerning the record industry published by the Treasury Department.

The Treasury Department derived such data from the amount of the taxes paid on the records sold by Italian manufacturers during the year 1968. As it is known, Italian manufacturers pay 10% tax on the invoiced amount of the total records sold.

The official data given by the Treasury Dept. revealed an increase of 5% in the total sales of 1968 compared with those of 1967. This 5% increase was reported in last year's directory.

The 'Second Market'

This percentage takes into consideration a kind of "second" market: this is a "underhand" sales channel formed by some little record-stalls which have started their activity first in big markets and then all throughout Italy.

The total turnover of these record-stalls is quite interesting. Of course the record stalls are selling first of all low priced disks or stock records, but the real possibilities of this market have been extremely well appreciated by a few record firms, especially those located in the south of Italy. These small record producers have created a product to be sold only by record stalls.

The sales of such record stalls are not only concentrated on LP disks, but also on the cover versions of top record hits. In this regard, the sales through the record stalls are considered "dangerous" by the top record producers.

In this regard, it is estimated by some of the top executives of the Italian record industry, that the sales effected through the record-stall represent at least a 10% of the total sales effected through the usual record-shops channel.

In some cases, for a top record hit it has been noticed that at least 15% of the total sales have been covered by cover versions sold through record-stalls.

This is, of course, the part of the record market which more easily escapes fiscal and statistical control.

Considering that the average of sales of each record stall is (in order to maintain a sufficient earning) of at least 4,000 units per year (singles and LPs) and considering that presently there are in Italy, according to inquiry, almost 1,200 record stalls, the number of records sold through the stalls is about 4,800,000 records.

The data received from SEDRIM goes back to 1963. All this data is printed in order to give an idea about the development of the Italian record market during the past five years.

The data concerning 1968 are not yet fully available from SEDRIM, but according to its approximative estimation, there has been in the past year an increase of 5%. Cash Box has calculated such an increase on that basis, and have so reported the inductive datas for 1968:

Considering as an example the classical records sold, a great part of the records sold on the Italian territory includes compositions of public domain whose rights are not to be collected by SEDRIM.

In a fair estimation one can calculate that only a fourth of the total classical records sold includes compositions still protected, so the total amount of the records devoted to the Classical music sold in Italy shall be increased by 5,280,000 disks, 90% of these units being 12 inch LPs.

Adding this amount to the total record units sold in Italy during 1968, and considering that another 10% of the records totally sold is not statistically noticed, there is a total of 50,000,000 records units sold in Italy in one year.

If the total production and the potential market, according to the results above, puts the Italian market among the larger European markets, the situation is completely different if one considers the amount of records exported.

Exportations

This is the total of the record units exported during the past six years. As for the above mentioned figures the amount shown for the year 1968 is derived inductively from the data received by SEDRIM.

YEAR	TOTAL AMOUNTS OF RECORDS EXPORTED
1963	643,925
1964	1,006,910
1965	1,163,488
1966	1,053,283
1967	1,657,521
1968	1,810,000 (*)

(*) Amount derived inductively.

But it is to be considered that the small amount of the finished records exported is directly compensated by the amount of original masters recordings licensed abroad for reproduction. This is the amount of masters and recorded compositions exported abroad in five years:

Year	Masters	Compositions:
1963	3,305	4,452
1964	2,768	4,296
1965	2,609	6,065
1966	3,786	6,352
1967	2,347	4,672

No official data is available for the year 1968.

General Situation In Italy

The total increase of the Italian market has not been so exceptional as in the past. But, if one considers that, as stated in our previous editorial, the ultimate goal for the Italian record industry, in order to reach the same average level of the other European markets, was to sell 50,000,000 records per year, during the past twelve months this ultimate result has been achieved and the Italian record industry can have a bright outlook for the future. Of course, the present position is directly connected with the general economic situation existing in Italy, a country where the per capita income has just reached this year $910.

Also the phenomenon of the record stalls is directly connected with the economic situation. The record stalls are selling disks at a lower price to a public with a low purchasing power.

This case applies only to LP disks, since for the single records, the market is strictly limited to the hit disks. The original versions of those discs have been maintained to a standard level.

LP prices have been decreased by the record firms policy, with the proposal of enlarging the market, but they have been furtherly decreased by the stall competition.

Considering now the singles market, while last year Cash Box reported about an unsatisfactory situation, this year there is in Italy a general optimistic opinion.

There are different reasons in the formulation of this opinion, but a general one, shared by all the top executives, is associated with the general economic situation, which is considered quite good.

While last year the situation was considered not satisfactory for the lack of product of general interest, this year, even if the increase in the singles sales is not exceptional the situation is different, youngsters are showing a new interest in record product even if it is oriented toward a foreign production.

Also to be noticed is a revival for the original Italian production: This revival has been pointed out this year by the good results of the SAN REMO Festival records.

While last year, according to inquiry, the total sales of the San Remo recordings hardly reached 2,500,000 units, this year sales have passed 3,600,000 units.

During the summer and Christmas period of the past twelve months, singles sales have maintained the same level of the last year, but during the first months of 1969 there has been a good increase in record sales in comparison with the same period a year ago.

On the other hand, it is to be considered that during the last two years the number of copies sold in Italy for a single top success has decreased. On the contrary, during the same period there are more numbers which easily reach top positions on the Italian charts. This phenomenon is directly connected with the increasing dynamism of the record market. While in the past years a number one hit could easily reach 500,000 copies sold, presently a big hit can hardly pass 300,000 copies. There are of course still exceptions, but these are more rare than in the past.

The attention of the youngsters is no longer concentrated on a few top releases but it is split among a larger number of single disks.

Year	Popular Records	Classical Records	Total
1963	24,408,397	1,058,023	25,984,352
1964	29,926,329	1,026,371	30,623,961
1965	28,433,988	760,816	29,194,804
1966	32,396,868	1,194,332	33,591,200
1967	37,556,975	1,674,927	39,231,902
1968	39,440,000 ()	1,760,000 ()	41,200,000 (*)

ENGLAND — PAST 12 MOS.

ords produced solid sellers in "You Got Soul" and "Cupid" by Johnny Nash, with a lot more to come by stars like Lloyd Price.

The label did heavy business with its LP repertoire too. "Raymond Lefevre Vol.3" was a winner, and so was a budget album by The Dubliners and "Requiem" by Jean-Christian Michel.

It has been a very good year for Page One Records. During this time they have expanded both at home and in the U.K. and in all overseas territories. Their catalogue has increased, particularly with regard to albums and their product is now attaining higher standards, reflected in heavy sales throughout the world. It has been for Page One a year of negotiating with artists, with producers and with overseas companies. 1968 was a year in which Page One attracted independent producers and has current production deals with Roger Easterby, Des Champ, Bill Martin, Phil Coulter, Stephen Komlosy, Mark Wirtz, Lawrence Wright Productions and Pete Dello. From these deals Page One has had its biggest hits of the past year. In June 1969 "I Live for the Sun" by Vanity Fare entered the U.K. chart where it stayed for many weeks. It was followed by a very successful album "The Sun, the Wind and other Things," and two further singles, both of which picked up good sales at home, on the European continent and in Japan. Page One secured Danny La Rue, an artist already established in his own right as a great female impersonator, and his first hit record "On Mother Kelly's Doorstep" was followed up in February by an album recorded at his club "Live at Danny La Rue's", the sales of which have more than come up to expectation. 1968 also saw the Larry Page Orchestra firmly established with singles and three albums "Executive Suite", "From Larry with Love" and "Instrumentally Yours", maintaining regular high sales in all territories. With the launching of the Page One label in the U.S. through Bell, the Larry Page Orchestra first hit the easy listening charts with "Those were the Days."

The Troggs have had a very good year with promotional tours in America and on the European continent, leading to big sales. "You can cry if you want to" was number 1 for many weeks in South Africa and resulted in their fifth gold disc for single sales in that country. Other chart places are "Love is all Around", number 7 in U.S. and "Hip Hip Hooray" Top Ten Germany. Recently re-signed to Larry Page for management. Also in 1968 Page One entered, with great success, the Irish market, producing albums especially aimed at the Irish record buying public. Artists include Malachy Doris and his Ceili Band, Sally McNally, The Jolly Tinkermen and Ireland's top folk group Emmet Spiceland, whose singles regularly make the charts. The beginning of 1969 saw Page One being voted the most efficient office at Midem. Many contracts were signed to establish the Page One label in all territories. Since that time the label has been launched in Australia, New Zealand and Spain with Germany and Italy to follow in June. By the end of the year Page One Records will be available all over the world. Contacts were made, and since cemented by personal visits, with producers leading to the acquisition of rights to product by some of Europe's leading artists, already chart veterans in their own countries. These include one of Holland's biggest groups Sandy Coast, Spain's Salome (joint winner of the Eurovision Song Contest with "Vivo Cantando") and Joy Unlimited. On a recent trip to the U.S. Larry Page picked up Medicine Man by the Buchanan Brothers from Event Records. Medicine Man together with a home production from independent producer Pete Dello, "I'm a Gambler" by Lace, are the records which are expected to be the next hits on Page One.

Larry Page intends to continue to expand in 1969. This will include Page One releases in every territory, coupled with an expanding catalogue of material to suit every taste, from comedy to classical, from folk to jazz, from traditional to pop, and any other kind of recording for which there may be public demand.

TRACK RECORDS

Track Records followed its customary policy of releasing a small quantity of quality product with maximum promotion, a policy that has made the label one of the most successful amongst the smaller British disk companies.

Track cornered a respectable slice of the single hit parade with the No. 1 success "Fire" by The Crazy World Of Arthur Brown, plus chart entrants like "All Along The Watchtower" by Jimi Hendrix, and "Dogs" and "Magic Bus" by The Who.

The label also registered strongly

TRANSATLANTIC RECORDS

The year for Transatlantic Records was one of steady expansion in almost every field. Transatlantic's product began to spread to many parts of the world where it had not been previously seen and other international arrangements were revised and strengthened. The Transatlantic label was seen for the first time in South Africa, under its own logo, and the label was also launched in Spain and Portugal through Sonoplay. Italy also saw its first Transatlantic releases during the course of the year, through an agreement with Clan Celentano and Transatlantic product enjoyed particular success in Holland where Bovema became the Company's Representatives. In the United States and Canada also, where Transatlantic licenses on an artist by artist basis, more product than ever found its way on to the market, Transatlantic concluding licensing deals with Warner Bros.-Seven Arts for the Sallyangie, Reprise for the Pentangle, Bert Jansch and John Renbourn, Capitol for Ralph McTell, Tetragrammaton for the Johnstons and Sire Records for the Purple Gang. The Pentangle in particular made 68/69 a bright year for Transatlantic, their records being released in almost every part of the world and their first LP spending over ten weeks in the British LP charts. Another most successful artist acquisition during the year was the leading Irish group, the Johnstons, who immediately proved their worth with their version of the Joni Mitchell song, "Both Sides Now". The company's image which had perhaps been previously more associated with folk music than anything else, was updated somewhat through the year with the move towards more contemporary and underground material.

This was also reflected in the licensing of material from the Douglas label. Licensing deals were also made with Warner Bros./Reprise Records for underground material. During the year Transatlantic also acquired the distribution rights to the Sonet label. For the second year running, a sales convention was held in January, this year at the Londoner Hotel. Sales representatives from all Transatlantic's distributors attended together with artists and many guests.

MUSIC PUBLISHERS IN ENGLAND

The face of music publishing continues to change inexorably in Britain as elsewhere. The past year has seen a further consolidation and a regrouping of the major combines and an expansion in the prevalent practive of publishers producing their own songs on disc with their own artists and leasing the masters to record companies. The year has also witnessed a growth in the habit of new artists, who score on record, forming their own publishing company within the orbit of an existing publisher in order to mop up as much of the gravy as possible on all angles. Yet, despite the intensity of competition and the narrowing of operational margins, brought about by these conditions and the ever rising overhead costs, small outfits can and do register if handled properly. Cyril Shane's lusty infant is a case in point. If you can get the hits and exist for the long months until the royalties start flowing in you are home and dry regardless of your size or lack of it.

ACUFF-ROSE MUSIC LTD.

Solomon King's recording of "She Wears My Ring" started 1968 off well for Acuff-Rose Music Ltd., and the success of the record and sheet music sales continued well into the year. Nick Firth's productions of vocal/harmony group, The Art Movement, for the Decca label secured national recognition through "I Love Being In Love With You" and the follow-up later in the year "You've Got The Loving Touch." Since then the group continued to be featured on most popular BBC radio programs. Throughout 1968 Acuff-Rose were responsible for many noteworthy song contributions to the British record scene including: "Picking Up Pebbles" (Recorded by the late Johnny Curtis), "Smile Girl For Me" (The Cat's Eyes), "Streatham Hippodrome" (The Cuppa Tea) etc. American records released in Britain were well-represented in all the major BBC disc Programs and amongst the most featured records were: "Louisiana Man" (Bobbie Gentry), "I Wanna Live" (Glen Campbell), "Morning in your Eyes" (Frank Ifield), "It's My Time" (Everly Bros.), "Walk On" (Roy Orbison), "Woman, Woman" (The Union Gap), "Lovin' Season" (Gene & Debbie), "Sweet Memories" (Andy Williams), "California Earthquake" (Mama Cass), "Break My Mind" (George Hamilton IV), "Here Comes The Rain Baby" (Eddy Arnold) etc. Roy Orbison's 1968 British tour, handled by the agency division of Acuff-Rose proved a great success, culminating in Roy's 4 week engagement at "Talk of the Town". Gerry Maxin, who had joined the company earlier in the year to manage the agency division, together with Des Cox (Booking) signed several new acts including: The Orange Bicycle, Susie Wayne, Vincent Zarra and Dave Allenby.

The beginning of 1969 saw many other Acuff-Rose songs recorded and released in Britain, i.e. "Weeping Annaleah" (Gordon Waller) also by Tom Jones on an LP and the Swinging Gentry Singers on an album produced by Nick Firth: "Lament of the Cherokee Reservation Indians" (The Nashville Teens) "Gentle on my Mind" (Wally Whyton) "Stand Beside Me" (Malcolm Roberts). On February 1st Nick Firth handed over the publishing and production divisions

BRAZIL - THE PAST 12 MONTHS

The disk market, in the past twelve months surpassing optimistic expectations, has attained a very high peak. One of the chief reasons is the extremely dynamic activity engaged in by diskeries in sales and advertising, as well as the modernization of the factories, with the introduction of national equipment. Other reasons for this increase in sales are the growing industrialization of Brazilian Northeast, the electrification of great rural areas, and the development of highways throughout the country. The relative ascent of the acquisitive power of the people, allied to cultural factors which have led the Brazilian to consider music as one of the most expressive artistic media, explain why a population of a small per capita income spends such a high fraction of its salary buying records. Besides, the boom of recorded tapes, sold at a price proportional to that of disks, also accounts for the rise in sales. As far as imported music is concerned, there has been a noticeable increase in sales; The Beatles and Johnny Rivers are the top sellers. In the national area, Roberto Carlos, Altemar Dutra and Agnaldo Timoteo lead the way.

July
The international activity goes on with the appearance of Jacqueline Francois, Gianni Morandi, and Sadao Watanabe. Touring the world successfully: Brazilian artists Eliana Pittman, Caetano Velloso, Gilberto Gil, Zimbo Trio, Elizeth Cardoso, Sara Teixeira, Agnaldo Rayol, Sergio Ricardo (the one who sensationally broke his guitar in the 1967 Fest, and signed a contract with the RCA label). Roberto Carlos' new single "Te Amo, Te Amo, Te Amo" is slowly becoming a hit.

August
A French wave invades the country: Herve Villard, Maurice Chevalier, and Richard Anthony. Anthony and Villard are planning to cut Brazilian compositions. A little later, Sylvie Vartan also shows up. And . . . the New Vaudeville Band, here represented by CBD (Philips). This same diskery released "Tropicalia," a very important album, as far as the history of Brazilian music is concerned; Caetano Veloso, Gilberto Gil, the Mutantes, Gal Costa, Nara Leao are some of the participants; maestro Rogerio Duprat is responsible for much of the ideology of the movement, and for all the musical arrangements. Chico Buarque de Holanda and the guitarist Toquinho are touring Europe. In the "Protest Youth Festival," held in Sophia, Bulgaria, Sergio Ricardo has won an award for the best lyrics of the contest; chanter-composer Geraldo Vandre was among the best of the fest performers.

September
More international attractions pour in: Georgie Fame, from England, Roberto Yanes from Latin America, Duke Ellington, The German Jazz Group, and Earl Grant. Elis Regina's recently released album "Elis Especial" is among the most successful of the year. An influx of festivals is especially critical in this Spring season: the "First University Festival of Popular Music," the "Fourth National Festival of Brazilian Popular Music" and the "Third International Festival of Popular Songs." Maysa, considered by many the best chantress of Brazil, here on a short stay, ready to tour Latin America, and to return to Europe.

October and November
After Earl Grant's appearance in Brazil, the big-success LP is "Earl Grant's Greatest Hits," an album which appeals to very different tastes. Conjunto Farroupilha, the most popular Brazilian folklore ensemble, has released, through Continental, an LP with important folksongs from southern Brazil. Francoise Hardy has been signed to CBD; very soon she will be cutting records in Brazil. Os Incriveis, brazilian ensemble which has been having a brilliant career, has released an RCA LP which promises to hit the charts; its most important bands are "Te Amo," "Kokorono Niji," "Pirolito," "I Got You," "Israel," "I Love You, Tokyo."

December
Jimmy Cliff, who represented Jamaica in the recent International Festival of the Song in Rio de Janeiro, signed a contract with CBD and the success of his "Waterfall" was almost immediate. Francoise Hardy has been signed to CBD-Philips; very soon, she will be cutting in Brazil. Henrique Gandelman has produced the LP "Brazil Now" featuring the ensemble, G/9 Group, which will be released simultaneously in Brazil, England, France, Israel, Holland, and Japan. Roberto Carlos has started to cut an LP with 12 unpublished bands, orchestrated by maestro Pachequinho. Its release is planned for next month.

January
Milton Gama is awarded the prize "Best Public Relations in Sao Paulo." Bemol diskery, from Belo Horizonte, launches the LP "J.K. em Serenata"; the political importance of this fact is quite noteworthy: for the first time in Brazil history, a former president (J.K. is Juscelino Kubitschek) sings with a minstrel group, the Grupo de Seresta de Diamantina. The LP "O Inimitavel Roberto Carlos," as expected, is completely sold out; this obviously strengthens Roberto Carlos' prestige throughout several social layers: his has been, undoubtedly the big name of the year, as far as the recording business is concerned.

February
The TV Tupi First Carnaval Music Festival a big event to the Brazilian public. The winner, "Vila Esperanca," composed by Adoniran Barbosa and sung by Os Demonios da Garoa, is launched in a compact by Chantecler, also featuring "Oi Nois Aqui Tra Veis." The runners up in this Fest: "Vim te Ver" by Antonio Pecci Filho (Toquinho and Roberto Silvestre); "Estou of Acuff-Rose Music to Ron Randall, and he joined Chappells Inc., in their New York office. Dean Martin's recording "Gentle on my Mind" creditably reflected the successful promotion teamwork of Acuff-Rose staff, Mike Paice and Bruce MacLean, whose combined efforts were rewarded with the record's chart placing of No. 2 in Britain. Both Mike and Bruce are popular personalities on the A and R Contacting side as well as the promotion scene, as evidenced by the high degree of success they achieve in placing Acuff-Rose songs for future recordings. Roy Orbison's 1969 British tour coinciding with his current release "My Friend" has shown this artist to be even more popular than before, and during his visit Roy has recorded two LP's in Britain for future release, produced by Ron Randall.

AMBASSADOR MUSIC

The outstanding success of the year for Ambassador Music was "I Can't Let Maggie Go" recorded by The Honeybus. This scored heavily at home and abroad, and is currently enjoying another sales surge on account of it being used as background to a bread commercial on independent television.

Ambassador's Terry Noon reports a profitable ride for "Long Time Blues" which was the flip of Mason Williams' "Classical Gas." Williams compositions figured prominently in Ambassador's year with "Wonder Love" in an Esther and Abi Ofarim LP and four others in a Smothers Brothers album.

The company also had two titles in a Cowsills album, and the rights to the Ennio Marricone score for the Italian movie "Grazie Zia." Ambassador acquired American rights to "One Day" and "Do I Figure In Your Life?" through its London office.

BOURNE MUSIC

The year under review has been a very good one for Bourne Ltd. under the leadership of Len Taylor. There has been an increase in the mechanical income helped by the higher sales of budget albums. The Midem meet also paid handsome dividends by the acquisition of American material and on a reciprocal basis with continental publishers. Mrs. Bonnie Bourne made an extended trip to Europe culminating in discussions with Len Taylor in London. Although Bourne Music Ltd. is affiliated to Bourne Music America it operates on a completely independent basis, not only acquiring material from other American companies, but acquiring tracks for their Mourbo label.

BRON MUSIC

Contract writer Tony Hazzard was a major factor in another good year for Bron Music, according to Sydney Bron.

Hazzard penned "Fox On The Run" for Manfred Mann, "Hello World" for The Tremeloes, and "Maria Elena" for Gene Pitney.

Bron did well with "I'm The Urban Spaceman" recorded by The Bonzo Dog Doo Dah Band, which collected an Ivor Novello Award. Another success during the year was "Listen To Me" by The Hollies.

Bron Music completed wide international affiliations during the year by signing deals in Italy and France. The company is now represented everywhere apart from Spain and Portugal, where copyrights are assigned on an individual basis.

BURLINGTON MUSIC

Tom Jones and Engelbert Humperdinck made it a profitably long-playing year for Burlington Music, the publishing arm of Decca.

The two big balladeers sold massive quantities of LPs containing Burlington copyrights. Jones examples were "So Afraid," "To Be Me" and "I Got Carried Away" and among Humperdinck tracks were "Through The Eyes Of Love", "To Get To You," and "You're Easy To Love."

Burlington's two Johns, Nice and Merritt, report solid single success for the same period with items like "Cinderella Rockefeller" by Esther and Abi Ofarim, "Classical Gas" by Mason Williams, and "Son Of Hickory Holler's Tramp" by O.C. Smith.

Catalog deals included the Brent Music repertoire, specializing in underground material like the early Janis Joplin and Big Brother and The Holding Company recordings. Burlington's country corral was strengthened by a pact with Passkey Music and its star writer Jerry Chesnut.

Songwriter deals were signed with Deram producer Wayne Bickerton and Burlington promotion man Tony Waddington, whose "Nothing But A Heartache" dented the American charts via The Flirtations.

Burlington benefited from its eight tracks in The Moody Blues LP entitled "Days Of Future Passed," from early Alpert hits on Marble Arch and a cover Music For Pleasure LP, and from the perennially popular Jim Reeves repertoire.

CARLIN MUSIC

The thriving Carlin Music group helmed by Paul Rich took major publishing hit parade honors in Britain for the second year in succession.

Deals were concluded with catalogs like Canopy and Jama which led to Ficando Louco" by Luiz Lucas Ribeiro, an electrician turned famous overnight, with his 30 year old composition; "So Vou Dizer" by Nelson Sargento; "Parei com Amor" by Mauro Duarte; and "Enxuga o Pranto" by Jair Amorim. Evaldo Gouveia and Luiz de Franca. All the themes are romantic, generally telling of an unhappy love, quite in keeping with the Carnaval traditions.

Marcl.
The Grapefruit have a very successful stay in Brazil, appearing at one of the most important TV shows; their single compact with "Someday Soon" and "Theme for Twiggy" hits the market. Roberto Carlos' new film is on the making, under the direction of Reginaldo Farias. Leno's "Pobreza" is to be edited in Germany; CBS has already sent to Frankfurt his photographs and biographical data. Buddah Records (The Ohio Express, The 1910 Fruit Gum Company, The Brooklyn Bridge, and The Impressions) no longer represented in Brazil by the Rozenblit diskery; the present representative is Companhia Brasileira de Discos (CBD). Copacabana diskery has undergone a complete renewal of its promotion staff. "F . . . Comme Femme" (Adamo), Odeon's double compact, is in all Sao Paulo hit parades, selling extremely well.

April
Mario Albanese, the creator of the "Jequibau" rhythm, elected "outstanding member" of the Brazilian Folklore Association. The "Jequibau" is based on Brazilian folklore research; more than 100 disks of the Jequibau are scattered all the world round, many of them in the U.S., where they are discussed in several universities. Verve, previously represented in Brazil by Copacabana, is now represented by Companhia Brasileira de Discos (Philips); a sure success is chosen to start this new phase: "Ella Live." With the imprisonment (for political reasons) of Gilberto Gil and Caetano Veloso, the "Tropicalismo" movement has lost its most relevant names; and now that the show of Gal Costa and Tom Ze is finished, the "Tropicalismo" trend has lost a great deal of its intensity, which is to be regretted. Musidisc diskery, thanks to Nilo Sergio, is putting into the market, after years of research, the Minidisc, a 7 inch disk with the content of a 12 inch LP; it also turns 33 1/3 per minute.

May
RCA's advertising department has now two separate sections; Alfredo Corletto is manager of publicity; the other one, in charge of general promotion, is being led by Flavio Serra and Renato Costa. In the Sao Paulo hit parade, 36% of the music is published by Fermata, and 24% is cut by the Fermata Group. Julio Nagib is the production director of this group, whereas the president is Enrique Lebendiger. Anew law is in the making, which rules copyright problems; presently, several societies protect authors:SICAM, SDDA, UBC, SBACEM, SBAT. Oscar Peterson Trio and Earl Hines Quartet, have a very successful stay in Brazil; their appearances in several TV and theater shows made them the talk of the town.

hits such as "MacArthur Park" and "Wichita Lineman" and with Truesdale covering Steppenwolf and Grassroots material.

The Tamla Motown success story continued on singles and LPs, with Jobete-Carlin benefiting on the publishing angle. Carlin's home operations also prospered via hits like Clive Westlake's composition " I Close My Eyes And Count To Ten" and the Paul Ryan song "Eloise".

A useful link was established with the perennial Elvis Presley when he recorded his first British song "Wonderful World" by Gary Fletcher and Doug Flett, and hit material began flowing from the pens of David Martin, Geoff Morrow and Chris Arnold into the Shadam Music subsidiary of Carlin.

CHAPPELLS

For Chappell & Co. it has been another successful year with their vast show and film catalogue, with such films as "Funny Girl"; "Shalako"; "Mayerling", "Finian's Rainbow"; "Where's Jack" etc. In the show world they added "Your Own Thing"; British musical "Canterbury Tales" and "Anne of Green Gables". In the pop singles field they scored with "Dizzy" by Tommy Roe, "Games People Play" Joe South, "People" and "Wonderful World" by Louis Armstrong. And, of course, "Boom Bang-A-Bang" by Alan Moorhouse and Peter Warne sung by Lulu which tied for the first position in the Eurovision Song Contest and scored in all world markets.

FELDMAN MUSIC

The name of Bob Dylan was prominent amongst composer credits for successful Feldman Music copyrights of the year. Feldman's Ronnie Beck and Ben Nisbet found a whole lot of custom for the Dylan songbook.

This include "Mighty Quinn" by Manfred Mann, a No. 1 hit in ten countries; "This Wheel's On Fire" by Julie Driscoll and Brian Auger; "All Along The Watchtower" by Jimi Hendrix; "I Shall Be Released" by The Tremeloes; a Dylan LP by The Hollies, and now the composer's own "Nashville Skyline."

Other successes were Paul Simon's "My Name Is Jack" by Manfred Mann, "Good Times" by Cliff Bennett, which made No. 3 in France, and "White Horses" by Jackie. This latter was penned by Nisbet with the late Michael Carr.

Ramshack Music was formed with Chas Mills, and scored a promising early success with "I Remember Natalie" by Bob Monkhouse, plus "Shangri-La" by Mud.

"Les Bicyclettes De Belsize", a movie featuring songs published by Donna Music in the associate Francis, Day and Hunter group, was directed by Ben Nisbet, and was selected for screening at the San Sebastian film festival in June. Feldman also handled Bernard Herrman's theme for the movie"Twisted Nerve."

FRANCIS, DAY AND HUNTER MUSIC

Francis, Day and Hunter scored another profitable year in respect of both new copyrights and reactivated oldies. Tommy Sanderson provided the roll of honor.

Donna Music, the associate company headed by prolific hitwriter Les Reed, had a bumper bonanza via "Delilah" (an Ivor Novello Award winner), "I'm Coming Home" and "Please Don't Go" plus continued golden action on earlier Reed-Barry Mason world winners.

In the oldie stakes, FDH made the charts with "Passing Strangers" by Sarah Vaughan and Billy Eckstine; "On Mother Kelly's Doorstep" by drag doyen Danny La Rue, and "Dream A Little Dream Of Me," which had dual success through recordings by Mama Cass and Anita Harris.

Cliff Richard went into the hit parade with his customary regularity with FDH copyright "Good Times," the first Jerry Lordan composition in two years, and the company is pleased with its recent signing of progressive pop writer Malcolm Holland.

KEITH PROWSE — PETER MAURICE MUSIC

Peter Phillips of Keith Prowse-Peter Maurice Music reports "a very good year" for the group.

Helping towards that result was "Congratulations" by Bill Martin and Phil Coulter, No. 2 in the 1968 Eurovision Song Contest and an Ivor Novello Award winner.

A deal with Russell-Cason Music produced a string of hits like "Honey," "Little Green Apples," "Everlasting Love" and "Rainbow Valley."

Other successes were "Loving Things" by The Marmalade, "Harper Valley P.T.A." by Jeannie C. Riley, and "Mr. Business Man" by Ray Stevens. Phillips and the KPM team are anticipating a lot of action on other Stevens songs like "Isn't It Lonely Together?"

Notable additions to the KPM writing roster during the year were Alan Hawkshaw, Ray Cameron, and John Cameron.

MELLIN MUSIC/FRANKLYN BOYD MUSIC

Robert Mellin Music continued its expansion of international links and promotion during the year under review.

Amongst deals set was an agreement with the German firm of Alfred Schacht covering background scores in German movies and one with Bob Thiele of Flying Dutchman Productions enabling Mellin to publish that company's material in Britain.

Mellin also handled the score of the ill-starred Jerry Schafer production "Belle Starr," one of this year's casualties on the London stage and starring Betty Grable. The music was by Steve Allen.

Franklyn Boyd notched a good year with his infant enterprise, notably on account of some gold-plated Burt Bacharach-Hal David copyrights. These latter included "This Guy's In Love With You," "Do You Know The Way To San Jose?" and "I Say A Little Prayer."

Boyd was active in the realms of movie music as well. The company published the Ray Davies theme and the Wilfred Burns score for "Till Death Us Do Part" and Rod McKuen's writing for "The Prime Of Miss Jean Brodie," the Royal Film Performance of the year, and material in Mike Sarne's "Joanna."

In international terms, Boyd handles Yugoslav copyrights through a deal with Yugoton Records for English-speaking territories.

CYRIL SHANE MUSIC

In his first full year of operation Cyril Shane attained impressive results, proving that there is room and opportunity for discerning small publishers amidst the giants.

His tally for the year under review was 63 releases, including five smash hits and a No. 1. Amongst them were "If Paradise Was Half As Nice" by Amen Corner, "May I Have The Next Dream With You?" by Malcolm Roberts, "Something Is Happening" by Herman's Hermits, "My Little Lady" by The Tremeloes, and "Move In A Little Closer, Baby" by Harmony Grass.

SHAPIRO, BERNSTEIN MUSIC

Geoffrey Heath was named general manager of Shapiro, Bernstein, and took up his duties in April 1968. In January 1969 the company began independent record production with artists such as Marc Brierley, Cardboard Orchestra, Elaine Delmar and The Fourmost, all of whom are released through CBS. The Forest and Shirley and Dolly Collins were also signed for the new EMI underground label Harvest.

Chart entrants for Shapiro, Bernstein were "Keep On" by Bruce Channel, "Ring Of Fire" by The Animals, "You Don't Know Like I Know" by Sam and Dave, and "My Way" by Frank Sinatra.

The company acquired the Cyril Ornadel-David Croft score for the "Ann Veronica" musical, and produced the cast album for CBS. It also landed the soundtrack for the movie "Champagne Rose" which it recorded.

Major artists recording Shapiro, Bernstein copyrights during the year under review have been Dean Martin, Val Doonican, Lulu, Tom Jones, Cliff Richard, Vikki Carr, Sammy Davis, The Sandpipers, Peaches and Herb, Chicken Shack, The Chambers Brothers, Ronnie Aldrich, and The Box Tops.

SOUTHERN MUSIC

Bob Kingston, managing director of the British link in the Southern Music international chain, reports an active and successful year on several fronts, notably international pop successes and movie scores.

Donovan, the modern minstrel boy, continued his unique songwriting and recording progress with hits like "Jennifer Juniper," "Hurdy Gurdy Man," "Atlantis," "To Susan On The West Coast Waiting" — all of which found appreciative ears everywhere.

Other Southern successes during the year under review included "Sleepy Joe" by Herman's Hermits, who also recorded two other Southern charters in "Sunshine Girl" and "My Sentimental Friend"; "Boy" by Lulu, and "Wait For Me, Mary-Anne" by The Marmalade. The company's "March" copyright was the flipside of Lulu's Eurovision Song Contest joint topper "Boom Bang A Bang."

Film music publishing operations set up in conjunction with Anglo Amalgamated Film Distributors Ltd. and Monarch Film Corporation Ltd. handled the scores of a number of movies including "Far From The Madding Crowd," "Poor Cow," "Amsterdam Affair," "The Man Outside," "The Limbo Line," "The Private Right," and "All Neat In Black Stockings."

In the realm of stage musicals, Southern acquired the publishing rights for "Brer Rabbit" with words and music by Ralph Blane and Moe Billington and which was performed at the Intimate Theater, Palmers Green prior to future West End presentation. Southern also acquired rights for the contemporary youth musical "Events" which was performed at the Roundhouse and which will be seen again before long in London.

Spark Records, Southern's disk subsidiary, began operations in May 1968 under Freddie Poser's direction, and scored a solid hit with "Smokey Blue's Away" by A New Generation. The previous month Southern received an Award of Merit shield from ASCAP for the big success "Winchester Cathedral," which had been published the previous year.

Southern continues to build a solid stable of hit writers, and is locating some exciting new talent for future productions on Spark Records. The company has acquired film rights for the new John Braine book "The Crying Game," which should go into production later this year with a mammoth cast. The theme music will be controlled by Southern, with a title song penned by Geoff Stephens, compower of "Winchester Cathedral."

SPARTA MUSIC

Sparta Music under the direction of Hal Shaper made impressive strides and progress amongst the smaller publishers during the year.

Sparta copyrights rode profitably on the flip of four successive singles by The Foundations which notched an international combined total of 12 million, including album tracks. Sparta has also gained immensely by the publication of the Desmond Dekker hit "Israelites," and has 10 of the 12 titles in Dekker's Pyramid LP and nearly all those in his Trojan album.

There are four Sparta copyrights in the current high-selling "On The Threshold Of A Dream" by The Moody Blues.

Shaper has been increasing Sparta's international coverage and affiliations too. The company now represents Polish and Bulgarian publishing interests this side of the Iron Curtain, and Shaper regularly attends east European song festivals like that at Sopot in behalf of this new business liaison.

AARON SCHROEDER

With such items as "Back on my Feet Again", "Build Me Up Buttercup" by the Foundations, "Mexico" by Long John Baldry; "Sorry Suzanne" by the Hollies etc. Aaron Schroeder's British company has hit high during the year. Not only in the singles field, but many copyrights have been featured on albums by top artists.

SPAIN – 1969

The record sales scene is looking pretty good at the beginning of this Spanish Summer, 1969. Most of the big companies have made important investments in new equipment, improving their recording studios, enlarging their staff, and so on. Capital flow means always good prospects in business. In fact, many other standard manufactured products are confronted with a stagnant sales position in Spain now, but records are the exception. Comparatively, a considerable number of sales stereo sets have been sold and this naturally increases long-play stereophonic album sales. It is interesting to note that as a result of stereophonic sales, instrumental stereo recordings, (such as Enoch Light productions) are enjoying considerable sales.

However, important "classic" albums have been enjoying stronger sales than ever before. Fonogram, with the Philips, Archiv, D.G.G. labels, has had many great successes, and also Decca, Compania del Gramafono Odeon (E.M.I.) and Hispavox (the last one with attractive sets from the "Erato" label.)

In the area of the 45 r.p.m's, this year will see the disappearance of the "Extended Play" from the Spanish market, replaced by the "Single." Even, the "Single" with one side to it. In many cases, the companies do prefer to concentrate their promotion on the "A" side, giving the "B" side some weak material not to interfere the launching of the "A" side. Of course it is not a Spanish invention, since this is done in many other countries as well.

By and large, the best sales in the singles field are enjoyed by 'soul' records. Atlantic (distributed by Hispavox) is the winning label with Aretha Franklin, Otis Redding, Wilson Pickett, Joe Tex, Arthur Conley and all the other members of the same stable; "Liberty" (distributed also by Hispavox) "Stateside" (distributed by E.M.I.) and "Tamla-Motown" (distributed by R.C.A.) are doing very well, too. A great number of dancing "discotheques" have flourished all over the country, and this sort of music is the main source.

The groups, American and British, are also selling quite well. Fonogram has come up with many hits with its labels "Philips", "Mercury", "Buddah", "Kama Sutra" and others. The Beatles have always been best sellers. Their records are distributed by E.M.I. but their "Apple" label is handled by Hispavox. C.B.S. (Discophon) R.C.A. and other smaller companies also have their share of hits. To cut down on the mass of foreign product coming into Spain, and to favour the Spanish creations, severe restrictions have been scheduled at the Television and Radio Stations. At present 75% of the pop music must be sung in Spanish or written by Spanish (or Latin American) authors and composers. That rule has not effected the sales of foreign records so far, and the local Spanish productions have not greatly improved in quality, yet.

Among the most popular groups in Spain are Los Canarios and Pop Tops (Sonoplay) Los Bravos (Columbia) Los Brincos (Zafiro) Los Payos, Los Mitos, Los Angeles, Los Pekenikes (Hispavox) Formula V (Fonogram) Los Mustang and Lone Star (E.M.I.) Los Sirec (Vergara) Los Relampagos (R.C.A.) and some others. Many of them play arrangements of international hits along with their own original compositions. In the solo vocalist area Manola Escobar (Belter) the semi-flamenco star, and Peret (Vergara) the leader of the present "rumba flamenca" craze, are still enjoying very good sales. In the pop field, the catalan singer composer Joan Manuel Serrat is the top name. Zafiro enjoys very good business with him. Massiel and Salome, the two Spanish winners of the Eurovision Song Contest are enjoying a very successful year too. Massiel is on Zafiro and Salome on Belter, Raphael works in America almost all the time, apparently with a great success, but his name is not seen in the record business here to his legal dispute with Hispavox. Raphael is alleged to have signed with E.M.I. before the end of his contract with Hispavox; and as a result litigation has been very long and he has not made any new records, neither for Hispavox nor for E.M.I. Recently the court handed down the following ruling; Raphael must record 15 titles for Hispavox to complete that contract and after that he will be free to record with E.M.I. or elsewhere.

The old Italian influence in pop songs in Spain has vanished. Popular Italian songs from the San Remo Festival or elsewhere have passed completely unnoticed and they enjoyed later a great success when sung in English by Englebert Humperdinck or Tom Jones. These songs no longer sounded like Italian songs and that's why they were hits. When Matt Munro's records were released in English they didn't click. Then, E.M.I. released "Alguien Canto" sung in a very bad phonetic Spanish, and it has been an explosive triumph for Matt Munro. There are very many mysteries such as the Munro phenomenon.

AUSTRALIA-PAST 12 MONTHS .

The local record scene in Australia is still improving from year to year, but the results haven't been all that encouraging to everyone involved in the business.

In the terms of record output the industry is going ahead in leaps and bounds; and most of it fairly good quality product at that; but in the terms of financial rewards things aren't as strong with Australian-produced records as they should be.

Recording artists have rarely had it better. Record companies and producers are prepared to spend more money, effort, time, etc., in order to finish with the best possible product having consideration to all the factors involved in getting a record on-the-market.

Record companies and artists are out promoting better and harder than ever . . . with some excellent results . . . but many of these results are strictly on a regional level; which is the biggest single problem facing the recording industry of Australia today.

Many people in this country keep talking about getting releases overseas and conquering the vast international market . . . this is, of course, very good indeed if it comes off . . . but it seems that there is a more urgent headache at home that needs all the energies of everyone interested in the future of a local industry . . . and that is getting the Australian market completely covered to start with.

In the past we have given space to this real problem of the regional hit in Australia . . . and we do so again in the interests of the entire industry, because it is something that just has to be solved before the business can 'come-of-age'.

There are too many disks that score well regionally that don't get anywhere on a national scale . . . now, there are reasons for this. And these reasons have to be faced squarely and worked upon by all interested parties IF this business is to grow the way it should. The interested parties being record companies, recording artists, music publishers, radio stations, record producers, and disk-jockeys. There are six separate groupings, who, when all work together can virtually achieve anything when it comes to creating national acceptance of a particular record.

All of these six parties have an individual interest in a record; or, at least, should have, if they are truly devoted to the operations they represent. But, like in many other matters, it's quite often hard to get unanimity in enthusiasm towards a new record.

It seems that there are too many people within these industries who openly 'knock' the businesses they're in . . . this immediately downgrades things. Record companies argue that if Australian-produced records were given equal exposure alongside American and English in all States of the nation then there would be a significant rise in the number of local national hits; this may be so because overseas records that come here with a pre-sold (chart) reputation generally receive strong initial air-play. Record companies believe that as long as the local product doesn't receive similar attention then it has little chance of making the grade.

Radio stations and disc-jockeys generally are keen to play local disks . . . but only if they're good enough . . . and rightly so. But, this poses the old, old question, 'who is to be the judge of what is a 'good' record'???

Since there is no independent means of assessing the value of a new record for air-play; this decision must rightly be left to the radio stations, because it is their livelihood that is at stake and they must have the natural freedom to do what they consider is in the best interests of their respective corporations.

Radio stations are not in existence purely to promote records. They are business companies whose objects are to run successful enterprises, and at the same time provide what they believe are the best forms of entertainment and services to their audiences within their means.

The fact that radio stations do help an enormous amount in the promotion of a record is one of the side-effects of their business for which everyone in the record industry is eternally grateful.

No radio station or disc-jockey likes to feel 'obliged' to play a record purely because it is of local origin . . . this doesn't do anyone any good. A station or jock should program a record because of its value to their particular operation; or because the record can stand on its own two feet in the terms of performance and quality and confidently be played alongside imported disks without any deterioration in program output.

Tastes in records are very personal; this is one reason why it is often hard to get everyone 'on side' with a new disk. What Joe might like, Bill doesn't like and so on; and until some sort of unity can be won then the local product will still be in the same boat for years to come — an industry running at regional level rather than on a big national footing.

It seems that now is the time for ALL stations in Australia, particularly those in major cities with great influence, to make an all-out effort on behalf of local disks, because a good deal of interest is being created in Australian talent in several of the top pop television programs that are now showing nationally and are reportedly rating well. National television sessions with a lot of penetration such as "Uptight"; "Bandstand"; "Dick Willaims' Hit Scene"· "Turning On"; both "Sound Of Music" programs; "Australia's New Faces"; etc., are exposing Australian acts to millions of viewers each week with fairly good results, doesn't it automatically follow that radio audiences would respond in the same encouraging manner to a heavy schedule of Australian records???

The ground is being broken okay; and there never has been a better opportunity to get this Australian record industry off and running on a national scale that is truly national, one that is attained through a sense of pride in the local product rather than through an 'obligation' to act. Many people directly involved in the record business in this country sometimes are happy to point-out that the market percentage for Australian records in our total market is now between 5 and 7½%.

So this is cause for celebration???

Sure, 7½% is better than it was some twenty years ago when the percentage would more than likely have been nil . . . but in the terms of business 7½% of our market for our product is nowhere near enough.

If the American or English industries settled for a similar percentage of their markets for their native product., then they would have been out of business long ago.

Suggestions as to how Australian market might improve its sales appear in the continuation of this article (See Intl. Section this weeks regular issue)

However, a positive fact is that in all the recording studios in Spain at present, improvement, both technical and artistic, is increasingly noted. Much more attention has been paid to instrumental arrangements, with pretty good results in many cases. The recording technicians have improved very much too, although there are still one or two companies which like to make recording dates in London or in Milan, and they publicize it very loudly.

The latent anxiety for better quality which can be seen in all the companies, the bigger and the smaller, will be fruitful sooner or later, no doubt. And some good results have been achieved already. The pursued goal is to convert Spain into an Exporter Power in Pop Song & Music, instead of an importer. It is difficult ambition but the forward movement made during the past twelve months have been significant.

GEORGE ALBERT

JULY, 1969

Dear Friends:

In today's sophisticated, fast-paced and most competitively demanding music and amusement machine business, the average operator spends more time going over his financial statement than he used to delving into the record titles on the Top 100 Chart. He's a different operator today. . . yards ahead of his predecessors when it comes to matters of financing, credit, the art of loans, bonuses and what have you. Some say he's lost the romantic outlook on the business. . . that "sixth sense" which told the pioneers exactly what made one pingame a winner and which a dud, before it ever got to a location. We think today's operator is a champ . . . a hero, if you will. He's survived the brawling, hit-and-miss years and matured into a first-class businessman. Quite possibly, that once visionary young lad operating out of a rented route truck and a payphone for an address has turned into a credit and debit man. But to us at Cash Box, he'll always be a showman. . . for that's the way we see the business.

It's always a pleasure to sit down and share my thoughts with the coin machine industry each year at the publication of our Annual Directory. As we approach the 1970's, I feel a tremendous sense of satisfaction that Cash Box still plays an integral role in the coin machine industry and I share the excitement that all of you must as we anticipate the prosperity that lies ahead in the coming "leisure decade". With each Directory, we enjoy the same sense of accomplishment as our phonograph manufacturers do each year when they release their new music machines. As with they, this is the "top of our line", and again we hope that the trade utilizes this volume in the purpose it is given. . . a reference book designed to assist all phases of this industry toward the lucrative rewards it so richly deserves. Speaking on my own behalf and for the entire staff at Cash Box, may I thank you once again for making it possible to serve you.

A.C.A. Adjusts to International Look

OAKLAND; CALIF. — "As the world gets smaller, our business is forced to get larger," stated Henry Leyser, president of Associated Coin Amusement, Oakland-based importers of the NSM coin-phonograph line — products of European origin which appear about to parallel the course taken by the games of SEGA Enterprises — American industry acceptance.

The NSM jukebox line, currently highlighted by their Prestige 160, is manufactured in the city of Bingen, West Germany. This prominent European manufacturing firm is also closely associated with Loewen Automaten GMBh, major producers of gaming and amusement machines for the German market, as well as distributors for a variety of other machines.

A.C.A. has been representing NSM products in the U.S.A. for almost two years, going the established marketing route of factory to distributor to operator (in this case, A.C.A.'s dealers are termed "sub-distributors").

"To keep pace with our expanding markets, we are constantly on the lookout for new and unique types of equipment," Leyser stated, on a recent stopover in New York en route to Germany. "And although travel is an integral part of our hunt, we are not confining our line to foreign products. We will also search out qualified American products.

"We will not add anything to our growing product line unless we are convinced that the industry needs it; and that the product is of the highest quality. It must also be an exciting product," Leyser continued, "like the Prestige and its companion phonograph Consul 130.

"These two products have created a world-wide stir. In fact, this is the first time ever, that a jukebox, manufactured elsewhere than the United States, has actually joined with the other United States manufacturers to dominate the American market today; we have become the 'big five' rather than the 'big four' as was the case before," Leyser claimed. "This is a true breakthrough in the jukebox industry," he added.

"We expect that our expansion will eventually cause us to open offices in New York and perhaps one or two foreign countries. However, no matter how much we expand, we see no immediate need or reason to leave Beautiful Oakland," he added.

London Coin Sets New Standards In Glamour and Comfort for Arcades

LONDON — Under the guidance of Mr. H. D. Rogers, Vice Chairman, London Coin's growth during the past year has been phenomenal by any standards. Formed just a year ago within the Entamgroup, many arcades were set up including the now famous Golden Goose and Chrystal Room in London's Piccadilly. These two arcades are a 'must' for foreign visitors, particularly Americans, who are not accustomed to such luxuriously appointed places. Although primarily an arcade operation, London Coin have machines made to their own specifications by outside manufacturers, and they have had tremendous success recently with their three-quarter size machine 'Big Fair' specially suitable for the smaller site. They have also taken over the Sega line in the U.K. (Previously distributed here by Phonographic) and plan to step up the sales side in the coming months, particularly on the export side. They made a tremendous impact on the market at the Amusement Trades Exhibition earlier this year where they had one of the largest, most colourful and comprehensive stands of the whole show. It is their intention to exhibit more and are contemplating showing at the MOA in the States later in the year. In an interview with Cash Box, Rogers opined that because of the high taxation and licensing legalities there is bound to be a recession in the trade which will not be helped by the switchover to decimal coinage, although this will present an expense problem rather than an engineering one. Rogers also feels that the reason why British manufacturers have got the edge on American manufacturers during the past few years, is because of the lack of research carried out as to the requirements of the British which is so different from their home market. Summing up the success of their operation, Rogers said that the company is rich in experience — with some 40 years knowledge of the trade — coupled with original thinking and ideas which is essential in the modern age.

London Coin's ultra-glamourous Crystal Room typifies arcade of the future.

Coinbiz is Becoming A 25¢ Game — Rosen

TOKYO — The singularly remarkable accomplishments of SEGA Enterprises Ltd., in the international traffic of amusement equipment, are by now well-known to the industry. Helmsman David Rosen (shown below) is as vigorous in his attempt to establish higher play pricing standards throughout the world today as he was in securing an effective international dealer network to channel his company's products.

Using his extremely successful 'Periscope' arcade game as touchstone in his current "25¢ play" promotion, Rosen's philosophy states simply that the world is ready to pay more for its entertainment, ergo, the operator should charge more and therefore earn more. "The novel machines which the business will be producing for the 'leisure 70's' will be the trade's ticket to higher profits," he claims.

Triple Free Ball Gates

STANDARD MODEL
ADD-A-BALL MODEL

IN SENSATIONAL NEW

One, two, three or 4 CAN PLAY

Bally® GATOR

Two Dozen Ways to Score!

From the trio of can't miss Rollovers at the top of the playfield – each worth 100 when lit by mystery shift – to the double-duty Bottom Rollovers, GATOR is packed with strategically located score-building targets, vibrates with the criss-cross, up-and-down ball action that insures continued repeat play and top earnings month after month.

TOP GATE
SCORES 500

Opens 2 ways: by skill-shot across Rollover 6, when lit, or by selective skill-hitting of Bumpers 4 and 5, when lit.

MIDDLE GATE
SCORES 500

Opens by skill rampage around playfield, hitting Bumpers 1 through 5, when lit.

BOTTOM GATE
SCORES 50

Easy to open: simply skill-sock Bumpers 1, 2, 3, when lit.

SNAP-JAW FLIPPERS

Ball is a busy, score-gobbling captive on the playfield when famous Flipper-Zipper closes by skill-shot against Bumper 2.

SPECIAL
when lit by hitting all 6 Gate Targets

Profit Proved Two Ways!

Brilliantly new in eye-appeal, excitingly new in play-appeal, GATOR was designed to include time-tested money-making action and features of historic Bally flipper hits. The popular "SPECIAL when lit" rollover is only one example. And the magic mix of past, present and future was then location-tested in key spots around the world. Get GATOR and go places. Like the bank. With the fattest collections in years.

1968-69 HI-LITES COIN MACHINE NEWS

JULY 1, 1968—Coinbiz entered the fiscal year under a new cloud (or silver lining) called route consolidation. Various economic factors either forced or gently coaxed operator mergers or outright sales to bigger firms, often public vending companies now looking wide-eyed and green at the "lucrative music and games street location." . . . Coinvet Bill Prutting put his weight and trade prestige behind Jack Gordon's then newly-formed Cameron International Ltd. . . Trade mourned the death of pioneer Mac Lesnick, Baltimore operator and distributor . . . Federal FTC issued cigarette tar and nicotine "top 100 chart," forecasting plenty of anti-cig publicity during the year.

JULY 20, 1968—The Irving Kaye Company came into the amusement games business with its hard-hitting Batting Practice baseball unit . . . SEGA unveiled, or rather "unleashed" its extremely successful "Periscope" super-game . . . New York trade raised half a grand for the March of Dimes.

JULY 27, 1968—California trade-vet Joe Duarte came on strong with his Delta coin-table line . . . MOA issued its employee income tax table; another member service . . . NAMA noted meteoric rise in production and popularity of the can drink vendor; the vending association also upped its dues, effective the following January . . . Rock-Ola extended Portale Automatic's territory to include Arizona and parts of Nevada . . . Trade mourned death of Valley Vendors founder Isaac Chriss . . . Jones Frankel, the grand old man of Cicago's coin machine advertising industry, died.

AUGUST 3, 1968—Production workers' strike at Valley Mfg. ended and factory returned to full shift . . . Americom Corp. announced formation of Pocketdisc, Inc. to vend their mini-records. Little success reported thru remainder of year but much hope held out for death of National Vendors president Al Diederich.

AUGUST 10, 1968—Empire Distributing moved into brand new headquarters on Chicago's South Sangamon St. Celebrated with huge open house affair; in the Empire style, natch . . . Illinois association's newly installed executive director Fred Gain launched strong, and effective, membership drive. Numbers were to be needed for anti-pin legislative battle to enfold in '69 . . . Royal's Joe Westerhaus, Jr. closed off his '68 coin bowling tournament season with grand finals in Ohio. Joe's Dime-N-Bowl system gained in trade popularity with eight years of continued success under its belt.

AUGUST 17, 1968—Nutting Associates, riding the rising wave of sales (and location) popularity with its Computer Quiz machine, finalized its distrib network . . . MOA issued hospital coverage policy for members only. Big success shortly thereafter . . . Ed Martell of Tri-State Dist. opened new HQ in Manchester, N. H. . . Struve of Los Angeles holds huge Block of Ten Bonanza party for its operator customers; about 300 attend . . . New York City trade veteran Miltie Green entered coin-table manufacturing biz with merger with DiMalto Metals; called company Diplomat Billiards; decides to exit in '69

AUGUST 24, 1968—Cinema Mfg. entered audio-visual field with Color-Tek: offered "unusual" film material . . . Midway Mfg. pioneered the "beer frame" feature with its Fantastic shuffle alley . . . Jerry Gordon moved into Connecticut as sales exec for Betson Enterprises . . . Empire's Bob Vihon started mechanic training ball rolling for Wisconsin trade through Manpower Program; in conjunction with Denver training school . . . Cream of the New England operating trade turned out for annual Trimount golf gala.

SEPTEMBER 7, 1968—Commonwealth United acquired Seeburg Corp. with large block of shares sold by Coleman and Nicastro. Nicastro remained at Seeburg helm; Coleman resigned . . . Keeney's ex-president Roy McGinnis died . . . Rowe International established a distribution network throughout Canadian territory with offices in principal cities; firm division called Rocanco.

SEPTEMBER 14, 1968—NAMA opened its grand trade show in Philadelphia's Civic Center; discussions showed drift of the big companies into manual food service and in some cases, away from the coin vending machine; Seeburg debuted its Tobacco Counter super cig vender . . . Mel Blatt was promoted to top spot in coin equipment sales at All-Tech Industries . . . Ben Gordon, New England music and games vet, joined newly formed Wurlitzer dealership in East Hartford; taking top spot in '69.

SEPTEMBER 21, 1968—Rock-Ola's distributors unveiled factory's Model 440 phonograph console at open house showings clear across the country; unit with 2-25¢ play added weight to trend to higher music pricing . . . Harry Sanders, Nashville's Rock-Ola distrib, was laid to rest . . . Bucky Buchman's Redisco, Inc. dove whole hog into the little LP distributing business; many specially pressed for his own Bomar label . . . Mass. association under Ray Barker met in Cambridge Auburn; hears Granger and Cannon.

OCTOBER 5, 1968—Bally brought back its perenial bowler success in a "Super 69" version . . . Ransom White, former Nutting Associates marketing exec, took the high road, forming Cointronics, Inc., readied several games for MOA Expo debut . . . Entire trade mourned the loss of John "Tac" Elms, New Orleans operator and Seeburg distributor . . . Introduction of sound effects to coin games came with Midway Dogfight gun . . . Scott Daddis joined United Billiards as marketing chief.

OCTOBER 12, 1968—Doors opened on 1968 MOA Music and Games

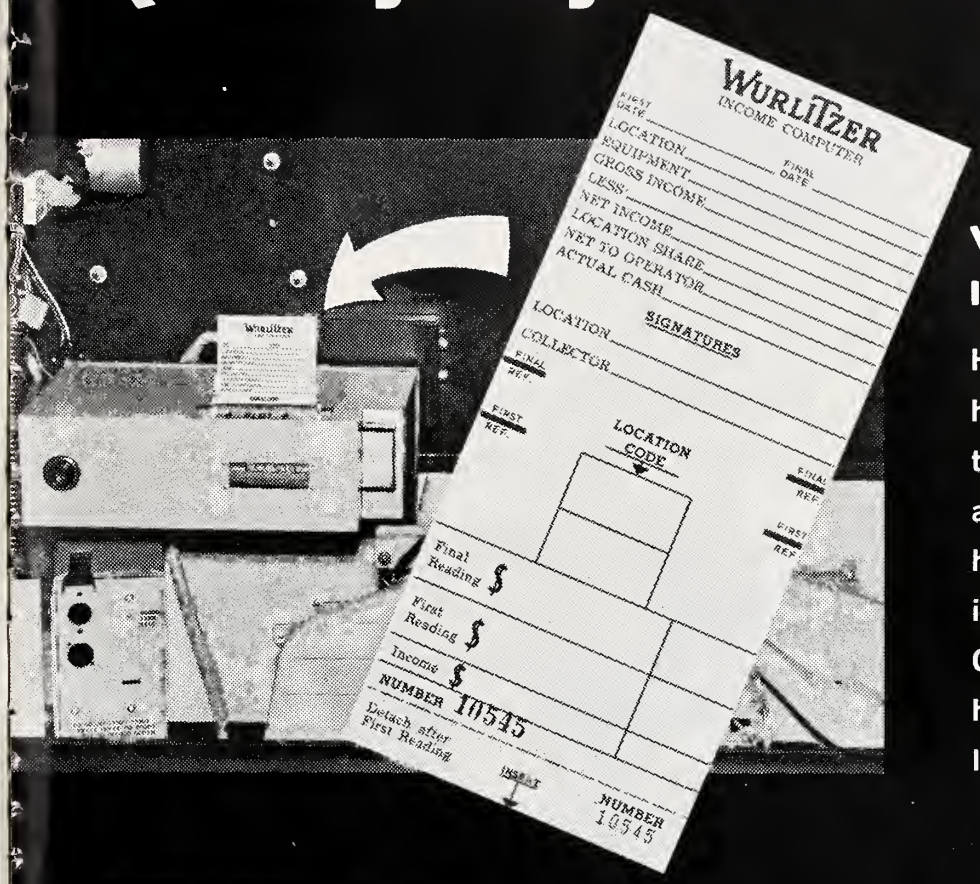
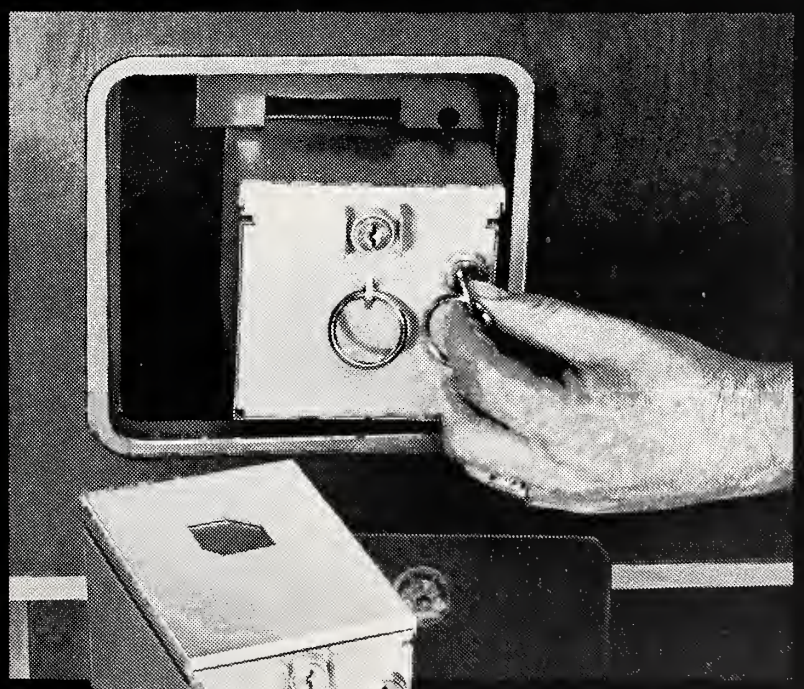
Two New Security Measures for Wurlitzer Operators that Quickly Pay for Themselves



WURLITZER MODEL 207 INCOME PRINT-OUT COMPUTER

Here is the most businesslike way of recording income that has ever been devised. On first call collector inserts pre-printed ticket in this Wurlitzer Income Computer, tears off serial number at bottom and returns it to the office. On each following trip he re-inserts ticket and gets instant reading of all money inserted in the phonograph and wall boxes since last call. The Income Computer simultaneously registers nickels, dimes, quarters, halves and dollar bills. Totals cannot be seen by anyone in location except location management and operator personnel.



DOUBLE LOCK SECURITY COIN BOX PAYS FOR ITSELF IN ADDED PROTECTION

Now available — a coin box that automatically locks the coin opening when special key is inserted to remove it from the phonograph. Second key to remove the money remains in possession of person authorized to record its contents. No unauthorized party can remove box from phonograph or contents from box. Simple installation. No change in regular cash box door or door key. Double lock means double security at an extremely reasonable price.

THE UNITED BILLIARDS ELIMINATION MATCH

There isn't a great deal coin-operated pool table manufacturers can do with their products to boost the operator's collections which they haven't already stuck in or slapped on. The operator knows that if his tables are good looking, have true, lively cushions and six pockets, he can expect to earn the peak return each of his locations can yield. The best money, that is, unless his prime enemy pops up — downtime.

We at United Billiards make good looking tables with straight, lively cushions and six pockets. But we go just a few steps further. We design and build our products to eliminate the bugs which rob an operator precious hours of service time . . . downtime, when no quarters go into the cash box. Here are a few:

We've eliminated ball-jam under the slate through a precision subway system which cannot be jammed with chalk, cigarette packs or the other items which normally drop into pockets.

We've eliminated the need to remove the slate for servicing by permitting the mechanic total access through the bottom of the cabinet.

We've eliminated costly repair time due to breakin's with our exclusive Mini-Drawer.

We've eliminated the operator's collection "guesswork" by metering every game — to the coin!

We've eliminated costly parts replacement. All precision parts on our Crest line are fully guaranteed and will be replaced FREE OF CHARGE!

And now we've eliminated the "quarter-back" with our exclusive TENSION CONTROL UNIT (TCU). The TCU absolutely eliminates the operator's age old problem — replacing the location's gift quarters . . . quarters returned to customers complaining that all the balls didn't return. By the nature of every table drawer, only the balls in the trap will be released at the plunge of a coin chute. Any balls still in the subway system (usually the 8) will be trapped if the customer pushes the coin chute too-hastily. Our TCU gives him at least a 10 second margin of error . . . gives him ALL THE BALLS. Gives the operator peace of mind. First to tackle it, first to eliminate it . . . United's TCU (standard on our Silver Fox line, optional on the Crest) eliminates the "quarter-back".

To Our competitors . . . can you match these features?

Pool table operation is a profession.

And for professional operators, United puts performance first!
